THE following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace and Heretors in the County of Perth, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Athol, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to declare our deep Concern for the Decease of our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms; and to assure your Majesty of our hearty and sincere Affection to your sacred Person and Royal Family, and of our firm Resolution and Purpose to support, maintain and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty and Government, both in Church and State, and the Succession to the Crown as it stands presently established in the Protestant Line.

And we beg Leave to offer our most ardent Wishes and Desires for the Health and long Life of your Majesty, and of your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, and for the Prosperity of your Royal Off-spring, which is a great Blessing to the Nation; and that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign, for the Glory of your Royal Family, and the Good of your People, shall be the constant Prayers of, &c.

The following humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the Shire of Renfrew, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Ross, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of your ancient Patrimony and Barony of Renfrew, most humbly intreat your Majesty's Permission to declare our Sorrow and Grief for our Loss in the Death of our late Sovereign, and at the same time to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

The Remembrance of that Stedfastness and Valour with which your Majesty early distinguished yourself in Defence of the Protestant Religion and the Liberties of Europe; the Mildness and Prudence with which your Majesty conducted the Reins of Government when Regent of these Kingdoms; and the other Princely Virtues inherent in your Majesty's Person, have not only charmed the Hearts of your loving Subjects, so conspicuous at the Proclamation of your Right and Title, but will effectually conquer the most obstinate, repair to your People the Loss of your Royal Predecessour, and secure them in the Enjoyment of all that is dear and valuable, of which we have a very recent Proof, in the Security given by your Majesty, for the Maintenance of the Government of this establish'd Church.

For our Parts, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and to all the Interests of your Government and Family, and of our Readiness to follow these outward Expressions of our Zeal through a Course of all those Duties, however expensive or hazardous, that shall become faithful and obedient Subjects to the best of Sovereigns.

That your Majesty's Reign may be very long and full of Glory; that the Crown may flourish on your Head, and shine with redoubled Splendour; that indulgent Heaven may bless your Royal Consort the Queen's Majesty, and may preserve for Ages yet unborn an endless Succession of great and good Princes of your illustrious House, as a constant Spring of Happiness, and a Bulwark to the Protestant Interest in Europe, is, and shall be the Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most dutiful Subjects and Servants.
