From Tuesday November 21. to Saturday November 25. 1727.

St. James's, November 24.

THE following humble Address of the Council and the General Assembly of the Bermuda or Summer-Islands in America, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Hope, late Lieutenant Governour of the said Islands, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMONG the many faithful Subjects that surround your Majesty's Throne, permit us to join our humble Voices in condoling the Loss of your Royal Father of Blessed Memory; which Loss must cause great Concern, and can only be made up by the Succession of a Prince who inherits his Father's Virtues as well as his Crown.

'Tis natural for all Men to study their own Happiness: This we effectually do when we Congratulate your Majesty's Succession to the Throne of your Ancestors; for we have no Room to doubt of the Continuance of that Care, so eminent in your Royal Father, in securing to us and our Posterity our Religious and Civil Rights, which are the greatest Blessings of a People,

As we doubt not of the Continuance of our Happiness under your auspicious Administration, so we take this first Opportunity (by his Excellency John Hope, Esq; your Majesty's Lieutenant-Governour of these Islands,) of expressing our Joy and Satisfaction, and of assuring your Majesty, that we shall take all Occasions of distinguishing ourselves to the utmost of our Powers,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

*Bermuda alias Summer-Islands,
October 5, 1727.*

The following humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governour, Merchants, Commanders of Ships, Principal Planters and Inhabitants of Placentia in Newfoundland, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave with all Humility to condole with your Majesty the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign your Majesty's Royal Father, of glorious Memory; the Knowledge whereof having reached us but very lately, did affect us with the deepest Sorrow, and had left us inconsolable, if the Divine Providence had not interposed in your Majesty's peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Permit us, Great Sir, to congratulate your Majesty on this Occasion; and after paying our Tribute of Thanks to the Almighty God for so valuable a Blessing, to assure your Majesty of our utmost Zeal Duty and Affection towards your Majesty's Person and Government, the Queen's most Excellent Majesty your Royal Consort, and hopeful Royal Issue.

May your Majesty's Reign be lasting and prosperous, and that there may be never wanting a Successour of your august Family to fill the British Throne, shall be the daily and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful and obedient Subjects and Servants.
