Paris, July 21, N. S.

THE Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, has published a Mandate, ordering Forty Hours Prayers for her most Christian Majesty's safe Delivery. The King will continue constantly at Versailles till the Queen lies in, and for three Weeks afterwards, when his Majesty intends to go to hunt at Fontainebleau till the 6th of November the Day after the Feast of St. Hubert. Mr. Rigley, the British South-Sea Company's Agent, arrived some Days ago. M. de Villeneuve, who is named to succeed the late M. d'Andrezeel as Ambassadour from this Court at Constantinople, is set out from hence for Provence, where he will wait on account of the Plague till the Month of September, before he proceeds on his Voyage. The Earl of Radnor is arrived here from England in his Way to Italy. It is advised by Letters of the 24th past from Rome, that the King of Portugal had ordered all his Subjects, excepting such as are married or settled, in the Pope's Territories, to depart from thence within the Space of two Months, under Pain of Confiscation of their Estates and perpetual Banishment; and that a Portuguese Ship is ordered to Civita Vecchia, to transport them to Lisbon. This Order is said to extend even to Ecclesiasticks, and is directed to the Administrators of the Portuguese Church residing at Rome, to be signified by them to the Subjects of that Nation. The Count de Galowin, the Czar's Plenipotentiary for the Congress, having passed through Soissons is arrived here. The Count d'Hoym's Ambassadour at this Court from the King of Poland, having lately had the Small Pox is recovered, and is going to St. Cloud for the Air. Baron Penterridter, his Imperial Majesty's Ambassadour at the Congress of Soissons, having been out of Order for some Time of a Cold, was taken extremely ill on the 15th, and has continued so ever since to such a Degree, that his Life is despaired of.

Whitehall, July 15.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant to the Reverend Dr. John Harris, a Prebend in the Church of Canterbury, void by the Death of Dr. John Hancock.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant to the Reverend Dr. Samuel Lisle, a Prebend in the Church of Canterbury, void by the Resignation of Dr. John Clarke promoted to the Deanry of Sarum.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Mr. Gilbert Young to be sole Commissary Clerk of the Commissariat of Dumfries in North Britain.
