Gratz, October 2; N. S.

HIS Imperial Majesty arrived here on the 24th past, late at Night, and surprized us agreeably, being not expected till the next Day; but an Accident which happened in the Houle he was to lie at on the Road hastened his Journey: As the Servants who had gone before to prepare every thing for the Emperour's Reception, had laid Part of the Baggage in the Room over that which was designed for his Imperial Majesty, one of the Beams being rotten, fell in, and brought down with it a great Part of the Cieling. The Emperour arriving some Time after, and finding every thing in Confusion, took thereupon the Resolution of coming on the same Night to Gratz. The Beam and Cieling have been since brought hither, and are to be kept as a Monument of our Monarch's happy Preservation from so imminent a Danger. The 1st Instant being his Imperial Majesty's Birth-Day, it was celebrated here with great Demonstrations of Joy: The foreign Ministers, who made a fine Appearance, had the Honour to compliment him on this Occasion: There was likewise a numerous Concourse of Nobility at Court, and a Comfort of Musick performed by some of the best Italian Masters. Their Imperial Majesties will remove from hence on the 6th Instant to Neustad, and propose to be there on the 8th; but they will not return to Vienna before the 18th Instant.

Hague, Oct. 15, N. S. On the 12th Instant the Grand Pensionary of Holland had a Conference with the other Pensionaries appointed to assist him in redressing the Affairs of the Finances, and 'tis said they are settling Regulations for the intended Tax called Familie-Geldt, which is like to pass for two Years this Session of the States of Holland, (who met the 13th,) and 'tis computed will produce Six Millions of Florins a Year, applicable to the defraying the Charges of the late Levies and other Extraordinaries. The late M. Pestfers's Secretary at Brussels, is ordered by the States to take Care of their Affairs there, till some Person be named to succeed that Minister. M. Rumpff is talk'd of for that Employment, which will be disposed of before the States of Holland separate. The Dutchels of Richmond is arrived here from Aix la Chapelle.

Treasury-Chamber, Oct. 7. 1728.
