St. James's, December 18.

This Day Sir Hans Sloane President, with several of the Council and many other Fellows of the Royal Society, waited on His Royal Highness Prince Frederick ; and the President made their Compliments to His Royal Highness by the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Royal Society of London founded to promote Natural Knowledge and useful Arts, beg Leave to express their Joy and Satisfaction on your Royal Highness's safe Arrival in England.

Your Royal Highness is not unacquainted, with what Success Natural and Experimental Knowledge have been advanced, Astronomy, Geography, and Navigation improved, Husbandry and Gardening cultivated, Trade and Manufactures promoted, and above all, the infinite Wisdom and Power of Almighty God the Author of Nature in creating and preserving the Universe set forth and demonstrated, by the
