And to Twenty Six private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Season of the Year, and the Dispatch you have given to the Publick Business, make it proper for me to put an End to this Session of Parliament; which I cannot do without expressing my Satisfaction at the just Regard you have shewn, upon all Occasions, to my Honour, and to the true Interest of my People.

The Prudence and Temper with which you have proceeded at this critical Coniuncture, have been very acceptable to me, and cannot fail of meeting with general Approbation; your several Determinations upon Matters of the greatest Nicety and Importance, have shewn you not insensible of the Difficulties we labour under, without suffering yourselves to be transported and carried into any unseasonable Warmths and Animosities; you have considered the Losses of our Merchants with a becoming Compassion and Concern, and received their Complaints in such a manner, as will best conduce to the obtaining them Justice and Satisfaction; and you may be assured, no Endeavours shall be wanting on my Part, to answer the Expectations and Wishes of my People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Supplies which you have granted me, and so effectually raised, in a manner the least burthensome to my Subjects, are a new Proof of your Zeal, Affection, and Readiness to support me in the Defence and Protection of the Rights and Privileges of my Kingdom; it is a great Satisfaction to me to observe, that you have been thus able to supply the necessary Charges and Expences that have unavoidably been brought and continued upon us, and at the same Time, to make a further Progress in lessening and reducing the National Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have already acquainted you, that it being necessary for me to visit my German Dominions this Year, I have determined to make the Queen Regent here, during my Absence; and I must in a particular manner recommend it to you all, to make Her Administration as easy as possible, by preserving the Peace and Quiet of the Kingdom in your several Stations and Countries, and by endeavouring to discountenance and restrain the vile and seditious Practice
