St. James's, November 3.

THE King has been pleased to appoint Walter Titley, Esq; to be his Majesty's Resident with the King of Denmark.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint his Grace the Duke of Argyll to be Governour and Captain of the Town and Isle of Portsmouth in the County of Southampton, and of the Castle there called South Sea Castle, and of the Forts, Block-houses and Fortifications belonging to the same, in the Room of George Macartney, Esq; Lieutenant-General of His Majesty's Forces, deceased.

As also to appoint his Excellency James Earl Waldegrave His Majesty's Ambassadour Extraordinary at the Court of France, to be one of the Gentlemen of His Majesty's Bed-chamber, in the Room of his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant his Confirmation of the Title and Possession of the Archdeaconry of Durham, with the Rectory of Easington to the same appropriate, in the County Palatine and Diocese of Durham, unto George Sayer, A. M. to which he was collated by the Right Reverend William late Bishop of Durham, and inducted into the same after the said Bishop's Decease.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Donald Mc'Neile, Esq; a reduced Captain of Colonel Maurice Nassau's late Regiment of Foot, to be Captain of a Company in His Majesty's own Royal Regiment of Welch Fuziliers, commanded by Lieutenant General Joseph Sabine.

St. James's, November 5.

This Day Baron Sohlenthal, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to notify the Death of the late King of Denmark; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards introduced to a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke, by the Master of the Ceremonies.

[Price Two Pence.]

St. James's, Nov. 6. This Day Baron Sohlenthal had a private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Emilia and Caroline, to notify the Death of the late King of Denmark; to which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, Nov. 5, 1730.

Whereas it appears upon Oath that a threatening Letter or Paper Writing, was on Friday Night the 30th of October last, left upon the Stall belonging to the Shop of Mr. John Newcombe, of the City of Exeter, Druggist, and another at the House of Mr. Edward White, within the said City, demanding Money to be put in particular Places described in the said Letters or Paper Writings; for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who sent, or contrived, or directed the said Paper Writings, or either of them, or left them at the Places above-mentioned, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

Exon, October 31, 1730.

Whereas last Night a Paper Writing directed to Mr. Newcombe, was left upon the Stall of his House within the said City, to leave Two Guineas under one of the Casks, or else prepare for the worst, Fire's a dreadful Thing. And another Paper Writing was likewise left at the House of Mr. James White, within the said City, requiring to put Five Guineas at a Place therein mentioned, or otherwise remember Bristol and Mr. Packer, our Name is Legion. For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who sent, or contrived, or directed the putting the said Paper Writings, or either of them, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the said City of Exon, do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover such Person or Persons, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive as a Reward the Sum of Fifty Pounds from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the said City, to be paid by the Receiver of the said City.

By Order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council.

Carwithen, Town-Clerk.

Windfor Castle, Oct. 12, 1730.

Whereas in the Month of September last several Letters were sent to Mr. George Packer, of the City of Bristol, Merchant, and one to his Sisters who lived in his House, requiring that a certain Sum of Money should be left in particular Places described in the said Letters, threatening, if the same were not complied with, to murder
