Lewis du Pleffen is made chief Minister and Surintendant of the Treasury; Major-General Lewenoern being arrived from Berlin, has been graciously received by his Danish Majesty, who has appointed him to be Secretary at War. It is believed the Princess Sophia, for whom the King shews a most affectionate Regard, will henceforward quit her Country Retirement, and reside at her House in this City, as usual. We expect the Court will remove hither from Friedericksberg some time next Week, and that the King will then appear in Publick. In the mean time, his Majesty is wholly taken up with reforming and settling Home Affairs, to which his Application is indefatigable.
