THE Duke of Lorraine is entertained here with Hunting, magnificent Treats, and Processions. On Tuesday the Duke dined at the Prince of Horne's, and the next Day at the Count de Lalaing's, where his Highness saw the Procession made here on account of the Canonization of St. John Nepomucene, and in Memory of his Martyrdom. There were five Triumphal Arches which represented the History of it: All the Houses in the Streets where the Procession passed, were adorned with Tapistry, Pictures, and Greens. The several Orders of Monks, the Council of Brabant, the Officers of the Archdutchefs, the Ladies, and the whole Court assisted: The Prince de Rubempre carried the Standard, four Chamberlains supported the Canopy over the Host; and four Canons of the Abbey of Caubergue, from whence the Procession began, carried the Bust of the Saint in Silver, adorned with Jewels, with a little Trunk containing some of his Reliques. Yesterday the Duke of Lorraine took the Diversion of Hunting the Wild Boar at Tervuren, after which the Archdutchefs entertained him with a magnificent Collation. Within these three Days past, some Squadrons of the Dutch Regiments of Le Lecq, and Recheren, and two Swiss Regiments of Foot, have passed through this City coming from the Barrier Towns, and going to other Garrisons. The Engineer General de Beauffe is come hither from his Government of Lier, to receive Orders for finishing the Works that are adding at Luxembourg, to the Fort Bourbon, without the Gate of Thionville. to the proposed Abatement, their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that Printed Schemes are lodged at this, and the Navy-Office, as also with the Commissioner of the Navy, or Chief Naval Officer at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Deal, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Harwich, and Kinsale, where all such Commission and Warrant Officers, as are so minded, may go and peruse the same; and such of them as are willing to allow of the Abatement proposed, are desired to subscribe their Names thereto.
