THIS Day arrived his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Grace was received at his Landing by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin: The Foot Forces in Garrison, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets through which his Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horse, the Battle-Axe-Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidst the Acclamations of the People, with the usual Ceremony, to the Castle; where, in the Council-Chamber, his Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Justices. After which, the Great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and answered by the Volleys from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon College-Green: And his Grace, repairing to the Presence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon his safe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

Hampton-Court, September 13.

By an Express which arrived here this Day from Mr. Colman, His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Parma, dated the 15th Instant, N. S. we have Advice, that the Dutchess Dowager Henrietta of Parma, having declared that the Symptoms which had given Reason to believe that she was pregnant, were ceased, and that she is not with Child, General Stampa, the Imperial Commissary and Plenipotentiary, did on the 14th take Possession of the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia in the Name of the Infante of Spain Don Carlos; an Imperial Notary, accompanied by the proper Officers, reading the Edict published for that Purpose in the Balcony of the House of the Governor of Parma, which is situated in the great Place of that Town; where some Troops of Horse and Companies of Foot were drawn up; great Numbers of the Inhabitants being present at that Solemnity. The General also wrote a Letter the same Day to the several Tribunals of Parma and Placentia, acquainting them therewith, and requiring the several Magistrates to continue to discharge their respective Offices till further Order.

Letters from on board His Majesty's Squadron, commanded by Sir Charles Wager, dated the 26th of August, give an Account, that they were then in Altea Bay near Alicant, sailing towards Barcelona; where they are to be joined by the Spanish Fleet, which is to take in at that Port the Land Forces designed to be introduced into Tuscany.
