Stockholm, October 13.

THE Queen of Sweden received last Post Letters from the King her Royal Consort, wherein his Majesty fixes the 18th Instant, O. S. for his setting out from Cassel. It is said his Majesty will stop a Day or two at Stralsund. A Placard is printed, though not yet published, regulating all Sorts of Expence in Cloaths, House-keeping, Marriages, Christenings and Burials; with new Prohibitions of several Foreign Commodities. It is thought that before it takes Place, it will undergo some Alterations and Explanations.

Cassel, Oct. 29, N. S. The King of Sweden left this Place about Nine this Morning. His Majesty intends to dine at Munden, and lie to Night at a Place near the Hartz, and To-morrow Night to lie at Heinsen, a Country Seat of M. Harenberg, and to dine the Day following at Herrenhausen.

Hanover, Nov. 2. The King of Sweden, accompanied by their Royal Highnesses the Princes William, Maximilian and George, his Majesty's Brothers, the Generals Verfchuur and Detfort, arrived the 31st past about Eleven a-Clock in the Forenoon, at Herrenhausen, where his Majesty was received and complimented by the Felt-Marshal, the Ministers of State, and some other Persons of Distinction, who had the Honour to dine with his Majesty. About Four in the Afternoon his Swedish Majesty set out to lie at Bourgestorff.

Whitehall, October 29.

Yesterday about One a-Clock their Majesties, his Royal Highness the Duke, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, arrived in good Health from Hampton-Court at St. James's Palace: As did his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in the Evening.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th Day of October 1731.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Ninth of November next, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Thirteenth of January following: At which Time they are to sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs.

London, October 29.

Yesterday Francis Child, Esq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Blackfryars-Stairs, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Goldsmith's Hall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were present the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction,
