Hanover, August 26, N. S.

THIS Morning at Ten a-Clock the King, attended by my Lord Harrington, and several of the chief Officers of his Majesty's Household, went from Herrenhausen to Celle, where his Majesty intends this Afternoon to view his Stables, and To-morrow to hunt and shoot several wild Beasts, which have, by Order, been driven into Toils near that Place for his Majesty's Diversion: On Thursday and Friday will be the Review of several Regiments of Horse and Foot, which are drawn together in that Neighbourhood, and on Saturday the King will go from thence to Gohrde, where he designs to stay till the Saturday following, the 6th of September, N. S. on which Day his Majesty proposes to return to Hanover. Baron Sparre, Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden to his Britannick Majesty, having obtained Leave from his Master to go to Stockholm for a few Weeks, had an Audience of his Majesty on Sunday last at Herrenhausen, and departed from hence Yesterday on his Way to Sweden. Count Degenfeldt, Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia, who has been here for some Time, having had Leave of his Prussian Majesty to go to Berlin, set out this Morning for that Place, having first had an Audience of his Britannick Majesty. Walter Titley, Esq; the King's Resident at the Court of the King of Denmark, having had his Majesty's Permission to wait on him here, took Leave of his Majesty Yesterday, and will return to his Post at Copenhagen To-morrow Morning. M. de Lintzing, Minister from the Prince of Anhalt Zerbst, who was sent on the Part of that Prince to compliment the King on his Arrival in his German Dominions, had last Week an Audience of his Majesty.

Hague, Aug. 29. The States of the Province of Holland continue their Assembly, and have had several Conferences with the Admiralties upon the Expedients lately proposed for rendring the new Tariff or Duties of Importation and Exportation more practicable than the first Plan for ascertaining and collecting them was found to be. But there are still great Difficulties in this Affair, chiefly from the Opposition made to it by the Province of Zealand. The King of Prussia has notified by a Letter to the Prince of Nassau-Orange, that he has taken on him the Title of Prince of East Friseland, and that he expects his Highness will put that among his other Titles when he writes to him. The Prince of Nassau-Orange sets out from hence next Monday Morning in his Yacht, in order to go to the Camp which is to be formed at Oosterhout between Bolduc and Breda. The Minister of Denmark has notified to the States by order of his Court, the Treaty concluded lately between the Emperour, Emperour, the Czarina, and the King of Denmark. Letters that came in to Day from Spain advise, that the Spanish Troops were returning from Africa, and that Part of them were already arrived at Barcelona, Malaga and Alicant. Ten Battallions were put into Oran.

Whitehall, July 21, 1732.
