Petersbourg, March 31, O. S.

THIS Court has received Advice, that Tachmach Culican had beaten the Turks in Persia, and had laid Siege to Babylon with an Army of 100000 Men. Last Sunday her Czarish Majesty was pleased to make Count Gallowin, who was in Sweden, President of the Admiralty, Baron Schaffiroff President of the College of Commerce, and Prince Cherbatoff Vice President of the same. Her Majesty has given Orders for the marching of a Body of Troops to the Frontiers of Poland the 15th of next Month, and has named most of the General Officers that are to command them.

Berlin, April 21, N. S. Prince Leopold of Dessau has been ordered to hold himself and his Regiment in Readiness to march to Mulhausen. The King of Prussia has caused Assurances to be given to the Dutch Factors at Konigsberg; that what had happened about the Loan desired of them for the Settlement of the Saltburgers, was done by Mistake; and that far from having the least Intentions to do any Thing that could be hurtful to their Trade, he was ready to enlarge their Privileges and Immunities. M. Munchausen, the Duke of Wolfenbuttel's first Minister, arrived here this Morning in his Way to Vienna. The Marquess de la Chetardie, Minister from the French King, has had Conferences with the Ministers for foreign Affairs, upon a Declaration he made to them some Time ago in Relation to the Affairs of Poland. The Court is at Potzdam, and the King takes the Diversion of Stag Hunting twice a Week. The last Letters from Dresden advise, that the Court was gone from thence to Leipfick, and that the Count de Castel was appointed Governour of Dresden.

Hague, May 1, N. S. Yesterday the States General gave an Answer to Count Sinzendorff's Memorial, wherein they declare, that they are satisfied with the King of Prussia's having set their Subjects at Liberty; that they hope his Prussian Majesty will also give them Satisfaction for the Insult on their Minister; and as to the Prussian Officer condemned at Maestricht, if it can be proved that the Council of War acted in any Particular contrary to Right and Justice, they will be ready to give his Prussian Majesty all Manner of Satisfaction; which Answer Count Sinzendorff has transmitted this Morning by the ordinary Post to his Court. The States of Holland now assembled have under Deliberation, whether the Reduction of the Troops shall be put off, at least for this Year. They have not as yet taken any Notice of the Prince of Orange's Affairs, though it is not doubted but they will deliberate upon them the next Week, and return their Answer to the States General. The Prince of Nassau Siegen of the Protestant Line, is come hither, to oppose, in the Name of the Prince of Siegen who is in Spain, the Delivery of the Effects demanded by the Prince of Orange.
