Berlin, June 9, N. S.

Yesterday Morning the Queen of Prussia set out from Potzdam on her Journey to Brunswick; as did this Morning early his Prussian Majesty and the Prince Royal. Colonel Ponikau, the new Saxon Minister is arrived here, and on Saturday last he went to Potzdam, to present his Credentials to the King of Prussia. The same Day General Pretorius, Envoy from the King of Denmark, went thither also to present his Credentials.

Copenhagen, June 9, N. S. The Master of a Bark from Norway has reported to the Admiralty, that on the 2d Instant as he sail'd out of Larkul, about Six Leagues from Christiana, the Danish Squadron was then entering into the same Port, after having been Nine Days at Sea with the King on Board. The Lowestaff Man of War is just come to an Anchor before this Place, having on board the Right Honourable the Lord Forbes, his Britannick Majesty's Minister to the Czarina.

Hague, June 16, N. S. The Grand Pensionary being entirely recovered of his late Fit of the Gout, the States of Holland will meet To-morrow. Besides the Affairs that they have before them, they are to deliberate upon the new Expences to be made in North Holland, for repairing the Damages that the Worms have done there. Several Persons of Distinction are preparing to accompany the Prince of Orange into England, among whom are Prince Maurice of Nassau, Count Henry de Laleck, Count Welderen formerly Ambassadour in England, and the Baron de Alblas. General Keppel is in so bad a State of Health that it is believed he cannot live long. We have received Advice that the Count Regent of Bentheim Steinfurt is dead.

Whitehall, June 9.

On Thursday last their Majesties, accompanied by his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, his Royal Highness the Duke, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, and attended by a great many Lords and Ladies of the Court, went to Hyde Park, where the four Troops of Horse Guards, and two Troops of Horse Grenadier Guards, passed in Review before His Majesty; who was pleased to express his Satisfaction with the fine Appearance they made, and with the Performance of their Exercise.

AT the Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of June, 1733.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to His Majesty at this Board, That the City and Kingdom of Tripoli in Africa is visited with the Plague, and that there is Reason to apprehend that other Places adjacent thereto are likewise infected: And whereas it is of the utmost Importance to prevent the Infection being brought by Ships or Vessels coming into the Ports of this Kingdom from any of the said Places: His Majesty, out of his great Care and tender Regard for the Preservation of his People, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, That all Ships and Vessels already arrived and not yet unladen, and all Ships and Vessels which shall hereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from any Port or Place on the Coast of Africa in the Mediterranean, between Cape de las Tres Forcas in the Kingdom of Fez, and Cape Rozat in the Kingdom of Barca, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, which shall be reckoned and commence from the Day each Ship or Vessel shall come to Anchor in the Place appointed for performing such Quarantine, and not before.

That the Places for performing Quarantine by such Ships and Vessels bound to the Rivers of Thames and Medway, be Standgate-Creek on the South Shore of the River Medway, opposite to the Isle of Grain, Sharpfleet Creek, and the lower End of the Hope; and by such Ships and Vessels coming into any other of the Ports of Great Britain, be such Places as shall be appointed by the Officers of His Majesty's Customs in such Ports, who are hereby impowered and required to appoint proper Places for the same.

That until and during the Time for making such Quarantine, no Person coming or Goods imported in any such Ship or Vessel, shall come on Shore or be landed in any Place within this Kingdom.

That

That whatever Ship or Person shall receive any Men or Goods from on Board any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine, shall be compelled to perform the like Quarantine.

That the Captains of every of His Majesty's Ships of War, who shall meet any such Ship or Vessel coming to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, shall take due Care to prevent the landing any Goods, Seamen or Passengers from on Board the same, until they shall be put under the Direction of the Officers of his Majesty's Customs.

That the Commissioners and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs, do use their utmost Diligence and Care, that the Quarantine before directed be duly performed.

That the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coast, be aiding and assisting to the said Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in stopping all such Ships as aforesaid, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for Performance of their Quarantine, and in the due Performance thereof: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

William Sharpe.

May 29, 1733.

At a Meeting of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's Letter Patent to take a Survey of the Officers of the Courts of Justice in England and Wales, and to enquire into their Fees.

Ordered, That all Persons claiming to be Officers, Clerks or Ministers of or within the Ecclesiastical Courts of the Diocesses of Bath and Wells and Carlisle, and of the Archdeaconries of Lincoln and Northampton, and all other Courts Ecclesiastical and Civil in England and Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who have not yet given in their Lists of Fees, pursuant to their Lordships former Orders, do forthwith lay before their Lordships (by leaving the same in Writing, signed by the several and respective Officers, with Mr. Joshua Sharpe, the Secretary to this Commission, at his Chambers, No. 6, in Pump Court in the Temple) an Account of the Nature of their respective Offices, and what Service, Charge and Attendance doth belong unto each of them by Virtue of their respective Offices, and what Fees, Rewards and Wages every of the said Officers, Clerks and Ministers, and their Substitutes or Under-Clerks, have and take for and in Respect of their several Offices and Places.

Joshua Sharpe, Secr.

Whitehall, May 29, 1733.

Whereas the Commissioners of Excise have represented, that Samuel Alexander, a Watchman, in the Parish of St. Giles's Cripplegate, in the Lordship's Liberty, and County of Middlesex, having the Seventeenth Instant, about Three a Clock in the Morning, with the Assistance of the Headborough of the Night, and other Watchmen, stopped a Man and a Woman loaded with Run Tea, and having the said Woman in Custody, as soon as the Headborough and other Watchmen were gone to the Watch-House with the said Tea, the said Woman crying out for Assistance, two Men on Horseback unknown, one on a Chestnut Horse, the other on a Grey Horse, came and not only rescued her, but beat the said Samuel Alexander in so cruel and barbarous a Manner, that his Skull was fractured, and he died the same Evening: His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, who shall discover his or her Accomplishes, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Excise do promise the Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Discoverer, upon the Conviction of every such Person concerned in the said Murder, to be paid by their Cashier, at their Office in the Old Jewry.
