

That whatever Ship or Person shall receive any Men or Goods from on Board any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine, shall be compelled to perform the like Quarantine.

That the Captains of every of His Majesty's Ships of War, who shall meet any such Ship or Vessel coming to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, shall take due Care to prevent the landing any Goods, Seamen or Passengers from on Board the same, until they shall be put under the Direction of the Officers of his Majesty's Customs.

That the Commissioners and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs, do use their utmost Diligence and Care, that the Quarantine before directed be duly performed.

That the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coast, be aiding and assisting to the said Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in stopping all such Ships as aforesaid, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for Performance of their Quarantine, and in the due Performance thereof: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

William Sharpe.

At a Meeting of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's Letter Patent to take a Survey of the Officers of the Courts of Justice in England and Wales, and to enquire into their Fees.

Ordered, That all Persons claiming to be Officers, Clerks or Ministers of or within the Ecclesiastical Courts of the Diocesses of Bath and Wells and Carlisle, and of the Archdeaconries of Lincoln and Northampton, and all other Courts Ecclesiastical and Civil in England and Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who have not yet given in their Lists of Fees, pursuant to their Lordships former Orders, do forthwith lay before their Lordships (by leaving the same in Writing, signed by the several and respective Officers, with Mr. Joshua Sharpe, the Secretary to this Commission, at his Chambers, No. 6, in Pump Court in the Temple) an Account of the Nature of their respective Offices, and what Service, Charge and Attendance doth belong unto each of them by Virtue of their respective Offices, and what Fees, Rewards and Wages every of the said Officers, Clerks and Ministers, and their Substitutes or Under-Clerks, have and take for and in Respect of their several Offices and Places.

Joshua Sharpe, Secr.

Whitehall, May 29, 1733.

Whereas the Commissioners of Excise have represented, that Samuel Alexander, a Watchman, in the Parish of St. Giles's Cripplegate, in the Lordship's Liberty, and County of Middlesex, having the Seventeenth Instant, about Three a Clock in the Morning, with the Assistance of the Headborough of the Night, and other Watchmen, stopped a Man and a Woman loaded with Run Tea, and having the said Woman in Custody, as soon as the Headborough and other Watchmen were gone to the Watch-House with the said Tea, the said Woman crying out for Assistance, two Men on Horseback unknown, one on a Chestnut Horse, the other on a Grey Horse, came and not only rescued her, but beat the said Samuel Alexander in so cruel and barbarous a Manner, that his Skull was fractured, and he died the same Evening: His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, who shall discover his or her Accomplishes, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Excise do promise the Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Discoverer, upon the Conviction of every such Person concerned in the said Murder, to be paid by their Cashier, at their Office in the Old Jewry.

Samuel Grey, Secr.
