From Tuesday July 10. to Saturday July 14. 1733.

Hague, July 17, N. S.

M. Bentinck, eldest Son of the Lady Portland, returned hither a few Days ago from Germany, where he has married the only Daughter of the Count d'Aldenbourg, a very great Fortune. He is much esteemed, and stands fair to be chosen a Member of the Council of State. A Book having lately been published here, intitled, The Present Interest of the Princes of Europe, and some Passages in it having given Offence to the Court of France, the Marquels de Fenelon has made Complaint of it to the States, who have thought fit to order the Printer to cancel the Leaves in which those Passages are.

Admiralty Office, July 13, 1733.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June past, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, and also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Corbett, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for Management of the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 11th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
