Berlin, September 12, N. S.

Brigadier Niphagen is arrived here on the Part of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, being charged with that Prince's Answer to the Letters sent by Colonel du Moulin, requiring a free Passage for the Prussian Troops that are to be cantoned on the other Side the Wefer. People talk here, that M. Munichau, Lieutenant Colonel to Major General Kalkenstein's Regiment, is forthwith to be charged with a Commission from the King of Prussia to some Princes of Germany, concerning the Ten Thousand Men which his Prussian Majesty designs to take into his Pay. The last Letters from Warsaw, by Express, are of the 7th Instant, N. S. the only material Advice they contain, is, that according to the freshest Accounts they had received there, the Russian Advanced Guard was only arrived at Kowno; General Lacy, with the Body of Troops under his Command, having halted on the other Side of that Place.

Hague, Sept. 22, N. S. Friday last, very late at Night, the Marquês de Fenelon received an Express, sent by the Marquês de la Chetardie from Berlin, with the Account he had received from M. de Monti, the French Minister at Warsaw, that King Stanislaus had been elected, and proclaimed King of Poland on the 12th Instant; and that he had been at Warsaw several Days before the Election, though it was not publickly known. The States of Holland having adjourned last Saturday, met again this Day, and received the Report from the Commissaries who have been employed these Two Years and a half to alter the Cahier relating to the Taxes on Houses through the whole Province of Holland, according to the Resolution of the States. The Marquês de Fenelon had this Day a Conference with the Deputies of the States General, as had likewise Mr. Finch.

Hampton Court, September 13, 1733.

Whereas Three Persons on Horseback, armed with Pistols, did on Friday the Twenty Fourth Day of August last, about Ten of the Clock at Night, ride through the Gate into the Court-Yard of the House of William Kinaston, Esq; in Shrewsbury, Recorder of the said Town, with a Design, as is supposed, to assassinate him, the said Persons, after enquiring for him, having threatened his Life, and drawing their Pistols, swore they would shoot him, and one of them snapt his Pistol at some Persons that endeavoured to discover who they were; after which they all Three rode off with their Pistols in their Hands; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
