through the County of Tirol, but it is said, the Gri- time arrived at Metz, though as yet we hear not Iony oppose it, unless they have a Crown per Head; the Emperor hath deputed the Count of Caplieres, Governor of Tirol and the Province of Brifgaum, to be prefent on his part, at the meeting of the Swiffe Cantons, which are at prefent affembled at Baden.

Danizick, 070b.15. Our Letters from Poland give us not any hopes of a peace with the Turks, unless that Crown will yield all the Ukrain, Podolia, &c. to them, besides paying them a yearly Tribute, which are the terms proposed by the Grand Visier, with this Declaration, That if they are not now accepted of, the Grand Signior will not hereafter admit of them, hough the Poles should defire them-However, we cannot hear, that the Turkish Forces make any confiderable advance, of have of late faken any place of throngth; certain it is, the Poles might scon be in a condition to stop their progress, and recover too what they have loft, could they once cease to be their own evenies, and anite for the publick defence of the Kingdom.

Rome, Octob. 10. His Holiness hath not this week given the usual Audiences to the Ambassadors and other publick Ministers reliding here, by reason of his being somewhat indisposed; however, it is said, that on Monday next his Holives will hold a Confistory, in which he will dispose of the several places at prefent vacant in the Sacred Colledge. We are told that complaint having been made to his Holinels, that Signior Negroni was about railing of Men in the Ecclefiallical Territories for the lervice of the State of Genoua, his Holiness was much displeased thereat, and caused Orders to be immediately sent to the faid Negroni to defift, and withal, to retire our of his Dominions.

Legorn, Oftob 14. Here is arrived in this Port the Sieur Martel, Commanding a Squadron of fix French men of War; it is thought he will not make any long stay here, but that after having taken in his fresh Provisions, he will go out again to cruise.

Genoud, October 19. The general discourse at Genoud, October 19. The general discourse at present here is, that the Presiminaty Treaty between this State and the Duke of Savoy is at length, through the great endeavors of the Sieur de Gaumont, brought to a conclusion; the chief Points of which are, That from the 22 of this Month, Stall be a Cessation of Arms, and that all Hostilities and Enmities shall then cease. Secondly, That all Places taken during this Rupture by either Party, shall be restored, and put into the fame condition they were in before this War. And Thirdly, That all Differences now depending between the two States, shall be submitted to the final Determination of his most Christian Majesty; Notwithstanding which, this State goes on with their Military preparations, and are fending great quantiries of Ammunition to Savona, and several other places, to the end, they may be in a posture of defence, in case any unexpected accident might yet hinder the final conclusion of this Treaty.

Paris, Novemb. 2. This Court is at present in great trouble for the licknels of the young Duke d' Anjou, who is so dangerously ill, that his recovery is almost despaired; the Mareschals d' Humieres, Bellefonds, and Crequi, who have ever fince the beginning of this war been retired from Court, upon their refufing to obey the Orders of Monsieur de Turenne, in case his Majesty should appoint him to Command his Armies (as he now does) have at length submitted to his Majesties pleasure herein, and are contented for the furture, to take Orders from the laid Monsieur de Turenne, as being the eldest Mareschal and now Commanding in chief his Majesties Forces. The Prince of Conde will it is thought, be by this any thing certain of the Kings going that way.

Whitehal, Off. 26. His Majesty having in pursufuance of the Election of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Offery on the 30 pail into the Fellowship of the most Noble Order of he Garter, appointed his Grace the Duke of Ormand, and the Right Honourable the Barl of Arlington, Knights Companions of the laid Order, his Commissioners to Instal the said Earl of offory, the Ceremony was ccordingly performed yetterday the 25 initant, in the Chappel of the Castle of Windsor, the proper place for that Solemnity, in the manner followings About 11 a clock in the Morning, the Atchievements of the Prince of Tarente, Knight Companion of the faid Order, deceased, having been first offered up by the faid Lords Commissioners, they proceeded from the Deans Lodgings to the Chapter House, preceded by the poor Knights, Canons of the Church, and Heraulds of Arms, from whence the Earl of Offory, invested with his Sword and Circoar, was introduced between the two Lords Commissioners into the Chappel, his Mantle, Hood, and great Collar of the Order being carried before him by Gar4 ter Principal King of Arms; being entred the Chap-pel, after the usual Reverences, he had the accustomed Oath Administred to him by the Dean of Windfor, Register of the Order, and thereupon invested with his Mantle, Hood, and great Collar of the Order, and placed in his Stall by the Lords Commissioners; then solemn Service began, and at the proper time, the Knights descended and offered, and so returned to their Stalls again; Divine Service being ended, they returned to the Chapter House, where they put off their Habits, and so the Solemnity ended . After which, the faid Lords Commissioners, with leveral of the Nobility, and a great many other persons of Quality, who out of their particular respects for the Person of this Noble Lord, came on purpos from the large, to be present at this Ceremony, were, rogether with the Officers of Arms, entertained at a very Noble and Splendid Dinner, by the faid Earl of Offery.

London, Od. 27. We are wanting two or three Posts from Flanders and Holland, which is the reason that we cannot give you any account at present of theaffairs of those parts.

Advertisements from the General Letter-Office in Bishopsgare street in London.

THele are to give Notice, that one Mrs. dwelling at the corner House opposite to the end of Suffolk freer (betwirt Charing Crofs and the Hay-marker) ta-Sufful-first (betwirt thating trofs and the Hay-market) ta-king upon her to reserve Letters, to be carried (b) her to the General Letter-Office in Biff of gar ffrest, is not authorised for to do by the faid Office; and further, that it is latel-discovered by the faid Office, that feveral Letters delivered and paid for at the said Mrs. Turners House, were never brought to the said Office, but treacherously made away (and the Money kept by the said Mrs. Turner, or her Agents,) for which offence she is now profecuted at Law; Wherefore this Advertisement is given, that all people may take nothis Advertisement is given, that all people may take no-tice of this great abuse, and have caution not to deliver any Letters to her hereafter; And further, if any fody shall find that their Letters (being delivered to any other Letter-Roecivers ) shall miscarry; upon notice given (to the general Letter Office), where, and when the said Letters were delivered, all diligence and possible endeavors shall be used to discover and punish the offenders according to Law.

Oft Offober the 13 out of a Ground near Burford in Oxfordthre, a bay Guelding, about 25 hand high, no white but on the back and fides, cauled by a galling, Tiots all, a-about feven years old, two Splints have been lately taken our, part of one only remaining, he hath been lately picked in the far foot before, the hoof not yet grown up: If any Person give Notice to the Bull in Bunford, or to Mr. Fdmund. Afficked at the black Bull in Lincolns-Inn-Fie ds, shall be well rewarded for their pains,