Copenhagen, January 23, N. S.

HIS Excellency M. Louis Plesse, Director General of the Chamber of Finances, and first Minister of the Council, has desired and obtained the King's Permission to resign those Employments, and to pass the rest of his Days (being turned of 60) as a private Subject under his Danish Majesty's Protection. The King granted him his Request very graciously, after having pressed him to continue in his Posts. The Chamber is to be directed by Commissioners, as it was in the last Reign.

Paris, Jan. 30. Our Advices from Italy import, that the Night between the 5th and 6th of this Month, the Marquis de Coigny, Lieutenant General, caused the Trenches to be opened before Novara. On the 7th, Batteries of Cannon being begun to be erected, the Besieged offered to capitulate. They were allowed to march out with the usual Military Honours, and two Pieces of Cannon, the Governour agreeing at the same Time, that a Detachment of his Garrison, which was in the Fort of Arona, should likewise quit it. The said Garrison of Novara, consisting of 1300 Men, was to march out on the 10th for Mantua. The Marquis de Maillebois, Lieutenant General, with a Detachment, appeared before the Castle of Saravale on the 5th, and the same Evening the Garrison yielded, were made Prisoners of War, the Officers sent to Alexandria, the Soldiers to Asti. The King of Sardinia having passed some Days at Turin, returned to Milan on the 9th. Letters from Leghorn say, the Spaniards had possessed themselves of the Forts of Ulla and Brunetto, making the Garrisons of both those Places Prisoners of War.

Sunday last being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lord Lieutenant received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction who appeared at the Castle upon this Occasion. The next Day there was a Play given by his Grace for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and at Night there was a Ball at the Castle.

From His Royal Highness's Council-Chamber at Somerset-House, the 26th Day of January, 1733.

This Day His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was pleased to appoint James Tillie of Pentillie, in the County of Cornwall, Esq; to be Sheriff of the said County.
