Leghorn, January 16, N. S.

THERE not being Room sufficient in the State of Pisa for quartering the Spanish Troops, the Country of Mugello will be also allotted them, and the Cities of Pistoia and Prato for the Horse; the General Quarters will be in Sienna, whither Count Montemar, with the rest of the General Officers, will soon go, Quarters being prepared for them Yesterday arrived under Convoy of a Catalan Privateer Bark, two Barks having on board Spanish Horse, and a Genoese Ship with the Royal Grenadiers, and their Lieutenant the Marquess Miramont: and 150 Horse marched to Pisa. This Day two other Barks with Horse arrived under a Convoy of a Spanish Packet of War, and a Review was made of the Regiment of Naples in order for their March.

Leghorn, Jan. 21, N. S. A few Days since there seemed to be a Disposition for a general March of the Spanish Troops; but it is suspended upon Count Montemar's Journey to Parma. We do not know if any more Men will follow the 4000 with which the Duke of Lyria went into Lombardy, and the Train of Artillery still remains entire here, the largest Cannon being on board of the Transports. It now blows a Storm of Easterly Wind, which has lasted two Days, and will disperse the last Column of Spanish Horse from Antibes, if they are put to Sea.

Hague, Feb. 19, N. S. It is reported here, that there is a Division, upon the Prince of Orange's Interests, in the Assembly of the States of Zealand, now extraordinarily assembled on Occasion of the States of Holland's late Concurrence to the Delivery of his Highness's Effects. The Place of Fiscal in the Court of Justice is now vacant; the Nomination to which the Provinces of Holland and Zealand do both separately claim.

Attendance is daily given at Stationers-Hall, Ludgate-Street, for the Delivery to Subscribers of the new Edition of THUANUS in Latin, in Seven Volumes in Folio, from Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon till Five, Saturdays excepted.
