Great Seal of Scotland, has by him been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the City of Glasgow, for ourselves, and in Name of the Corporation.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Conclusion of the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange:

We cannot sufficiently extol and admire your Majesty's great Wisdom and extensive Views in renewing another Alliance with the illustrious House of Nassau, so much for the Interest and common Welfare of the Protestant Religion at Home and Abroad ; the securing the Succession to these Kingdoms according to the Present happy Settlement ; for confirming the Confidence and Friendship which subsists between your Majesty and the High and Mighty States of Holland ; and for the present and future Peace and Happiness of your Subjects, and of all Europe.

It gives us the greatest Joy and Pleasure that the Princess Royal of Great Britain is given in Marriage to the worthy Heir of King William the Third of glorious Memory, who delivered these Nations from the Danger of Popery and Arbitrary Power ; and by settling the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's most Royal House, has secured to us, our Religion and Liberties, the greatest Blessing and Happiness these Nations ever met with.

May your Majesty and your Royal Consort the Queen live to see all the remaining Branches of your Royal Family so happily matched, as may give equal Joy and Satisfaction to your Majesties ; and all your loyal Subjects, and see their numerous Issue and Progeny geny that may be Assertors and Defenders of our Religion and Liberties.

May we long enjoy the Blessings of your Majesty's Government; and may your Reign be prosperous and glorious over all your Enemies, that you may constantly maintain the Balance of Power in Europe.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, as we have upon all Occasions been zealous for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion and our present happy Settlement, so we will always continue to evidence our Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, and still maintain a just Sense of the inestimable Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by

Glasgow, April

12, 1734.

Hugh Rodger, Provost.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of May, Lord Justice General and Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, has by him been presented to his Majesty; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Professors in the University of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, having our Hearts filled with the most grateful Sense of the many Blessings these Nations enjoy under your happy Government, humbly beg Leave to joyn in the universal Joy diffused through these Realms upon the Nuptials of the Princess Royal with his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

It cannot but afford the greatest Pleasure to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, that you have given a Princess of such distinguished Accomplishments, formed by the pious Care and Example of her Royal Mother, to a Prince endowed with the most eminent Vertues, and animated by the glorious Example of his illustrious Ancestors, Assertors of the Liberties of Europe, and Protectors of the Protestant Religion.

This repeated Alliance betwixt the Royal Family of Great Britain and the illustrious House of Orange, must revive the Joy, and increase the Gratitude of all the Lovers of our excellent Constitution, for the inestimable Blessings we owe, under God, to our glorious Deliverer King William, who restored our civil and religious Liberties, and secured them to Posterity by the Settlement of the Crown in the most illustrious Family of Hannover.

We take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that, as we are most sacredly bound in Duty, it shall ever be our zealous Study to infuse into the Minds of those under our Care, just Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, and the deepest and most grateful Sense of the Happiness of all the Dominions under your Majesty's most auspicious Government.

That Almighty God may eminently bless and long preserve your Majesty to reign over a willing People; that He may graciously shine upon your Royal Consort the Queen; bless his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and bestow all Comforts upon the illustrious Pair, and ever keep all the Royal Offspring under His gracious Protection, is, and shall ever be, the Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most devoted Subjects.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Honourable Major General Sutton, Governour of the Island of Guernsey, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailiff, Jurats, Clergy, and other your Majesty's Officers, in your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, in Behalf of themselves, and the Rest of the Inhabitants of the said Island.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and most faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to joyn, with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Marriage of her Highness the Princess Royal your Daughter, with his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

By this Alliance your Majesty gives at once convincing Proofs of your Majesty's great Wisdom, by bestowing a Princess most virtuously and religiously framed, on a Prince whose great Accomplishments give the Protestant World hopes he will equal, if not surpass his noble and heroic Ancestors: And of your Majesty's love to your People, by gratifying a Prince who bears the Name of, and is descended from the same Stock with their great Deliverer King William the Third of glorious Memory, with one of your Royal Offspring.

The infinite Obligations of which the whole Nation in general stands indebted to the illustrious House of Nassau, remain fresh in our Memory; and we shall ever remember that glorious Prince, who so happily delivered the whole Kingdom from Misery and Slavery, and transmitted the Crown to your Majesty.

That the Almighty may pour his greatest Blessings on your Majesty, upon your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, on his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and equally shed his kindest Influence on the Royal Pair, and on the Rest of your Majesty's Royal Family, are the most sincere Wishes, and earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County Palatine of Chester, having been presented to his Majesty, his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, assembled at the Assizes held for the County Palatine of Chester the 13th Day of April, 1734.

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange and Nassau.

The high Birth of that excellent Princess, joyned to all those Vertues which adorn her Mind, command the utmost Veneration and Esteem; and it is with the greatest Pleasure we behold the first Princess of your Majesty's Royal Family given to a Prince of the most distinguished Merit; a Prince of that illustrious House, which in all Ages have signalized themselves as Defenders of the oppressed Rights and Liberties of Mankind.

Your Majesty, by a Concurrence of Providence, has given the greatest and most agreeable Pledge of a national and universal Love to the immortal Memory of our glorious Deliverer King William, who encounter'd with all Dangers to rescue us from Popery and Slavery, and effectually secured to us our religious and civil Rights, by the Establishment of his Imperial Crown in your Majesty's Protestant Royal Family.

By this happy Union your Majesty has given additional Strength to that Succession, which is the Foundation of our Happiness, with the pleasing Prospect of its being transmitted safe to latest Posterity.

We sincerely unite with all those who testify an unfeigned joy; and surely all must applaud, when the most Factious know not how to condemn.

May the Blessing of Heaven continually attend our present happy Constitution, and your Majesty's glorious Administration, and may your Majesty ever have the filial Regard and Obedience of all your Subjects.
