Whitehall, May 24.

HE following Address of the Master, Elder Brethren, Wardens, Affistants, and the whole Fraternity of Masters, Pilots and Seamen, of the Trinity House in Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarbrough, Lord Lieutenant of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Elder Brethren, Wardens, Assistants, and the whole Frater-nity of Masters, Pilots and Seamen, of the Trinity House in Newcastle upon Tyne, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of the Princes Royal with a Prince of that illustrious House, which for many Ages hath so emimently signalized itself in the Defence of Liberty, and which, in the happy Revolution, to effectually exerted itself in pre-ferving these Kingdoms from Popery and Slavery, and thereby laid the Foundation of all our Bleffings both in Church and State. By this happy Union, your Majesty hath shewn your Regard, not only to the glorious Memory of our late great Deliverer, who was so instrumental and successful in securing these Imperial Crowns to your Royal Family, but also to the Protestant Interest and Balance of Europe, by engaging so assuredly those Protestant Powers where Liberty is fully established, more heartily to join with your Majesty in preventing the Growth of any exorbitant Power, which in Time might destroy that necessary Balance.

That your Majesty may long live and reign over us, as the Preserver of our Religion and Liberty, and the Delight of your People; and that your Majesty may very late exchange those temporal Crowns for an immortal one; and that one of your Royal Posterity may always govern these Realms after your glorious Example, is our most fincere Wish and Prayer. In Testimony whereof, we have caused our common Seal to be hereunto affixed this 26th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1734.

Hague, June 1, N. S. The States of Holland are to affemble To-morrow, most of the Deputies being already come hither. The Account of the Derath of King Stanislaus is not confirmed; what gave Rife to it was a Report spread in the Russian Camp. The last Letters from Dantzick of the 22d past, advise, that General Munich having by Order of the Czarina, made a Proposal to the Magistrates of that City, for the Foreign Merchants having Leave to withdraw from thence, the Magistrates demanded a Truce for two Days to consider thereof, which was granted; and the said Letters confirm the Reimbarkation of the French Succours; but those from Copenhagen say, that they being arrived in that Road, and joined by the three French Men of War lately arrived in the Sound with Troops, they had fet fail again for the Road of Dantzick. It is affured by Letters from the Rhine, that the French invested Philipsbourg on the 23d past, with an Intent to beliege it; that Prince Eugene continued in the Camp of Hailbron, where the first Column of the Prussians was arrived, and the rest expected in a few Days.
