Friday the 22d Day of November, in the 8th Year of the Reign of King George the Second, and in the Year 1734, between Joseph Nicholls, Gent. one of the two Clerks of this Court, and William Parry, Gent. Solicitor of this Court, Plaintiffs; John Homer, Esq; and Valentine Trott, Defendants.

UPON Consideration this present Day had by the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, of the humble Petition of the Plaintiffs, shewing that the Defendant Trott hath been served with a Subpoena to appear and answer the Plaintiffs Bill, and is in Contempt to an Attachment with Proclamation for not appearing and the said Defendant absconds to avoid being served with the Process of this and other Courts, as by Affidavit appears. It is ordered that the said Defendant Trott do appear to the Plaintiffs Bill on or before the 7th Day of January next.

In the Exchequer, at Chester, on the Twenty Eighth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred thirty four, between William Dod, Esq; Complainant, and Elizabeth Dod, Spinster, and others, Defendants.

WHEREAS the said Complainant exhibited his Bill of Complaint into this Court, against the said Defendant Elizabeth Dod, (Sister and Heir of Thomas Dod, who was Nephew and Heir of Peter Dod, Esquire, deceased,) and others, and has lately sued out his Majesty's Writ or Process of Subpoena under Seal of this Honourable Court, directed to the said Defendant Elizabeth Dod, and requiring her Appearance therein, on the Twenty Seventh Day of this Instant November to answer the said Complainant's Bill in this Cause, but the said Defendant has not caused her Appearance to be yet entered upon the said Process, as according to the Rules of this Honourable Court, the same ought to have been entered in case the same Process had been duly served; and whereas by Affidavit made and filed in this Cause, it appears to the Satisfaction of this Court, that upon Enquiry at her the said Defendant Elizabeth Dod's usual Place of Abode, she could not be found so as to be served with the said Process, and that there is just Ground to believe that the same Defendant absconds to avoid being served with the Process of this Court, in this Cause; thereupon and upon Motion made on the said Complainant's behalf by his Attorney in Court, this Court thinks fit, and accordingly does hereby (in pursuance of the late Statute in such Cases made and provided) Order, Direct, and Appoint, that the said Defendant Elizabeth Dod, shall appear to the said Bill on the Eighteenth Day of December now next coming.

Examined by Charles Foulkes, Deputy Baron of the Exchequer, at Chester.
