Witness, Richmond Riggs,

This Day is publish'd,

Proposals for Printing by Subscription, to be publish'd Weekly, at the Rate of Five Sheets for Six-pence, a new Edition of

Mr. Strype's Annals of the Reformation of the Church of England; interspers'd with divers other Political Affairs, supported by Records, Papers, of State, Original Letters, &c.

For what concerns the Writer of this History, it will be sufficient to cite the Testimony of the then Bishops, as we find it prefix'd to one of the Volumes in these Words:

'Mr. Strype's Abilities for writing an Ecclesiastical History of the Church of England, and after the Reformation of it, are well known by the Works which he hath already publish'd, have given great Light to the Affairs and Transactions of our Church, and the State of Religion and Learning within that Compass of Years, which we had but very short and imperfect Accounts of before; and therefore we can't but approve of his Labours, and do heartily recommend this his new Work, which carries on so useful and desirable a Piece of Church History so much wanted sign'd

W. Cant.	T. Chichester,	Fa. Bristol,
W. Ebor.	Jo. Norwich,	Rich St. David's,
Edm. London,	Jo. Wigorn,	Jo. Afsaph,
