

Wednesday the 31st Day of March, in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, and in the Year of our Lord 1734, between John Broad and his Wife, and others, Plaintiffs, Alexander Andrews, and another, Defendants.

UPON the Plaintiffs humble Petition this Day preferred unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, for the Reasons therein, and in the Affidavit therein mention'd, contain'd; It is ordered, that the Defendant Alexander Andrews do appear to the Plaintiffs Bill on or before the first Day of the next Term.

THE Copartnership between Philip Margas, Sen. Charles Margas, and the Philip Margas, Jun. being determined, and the said Philip Margas, Sen. and Charles Margas being, by the Agreement made on the Separation, to pay all the Debts owing by us before our Separation on the Partnership Account; these are therefore to desire all Persons who have any Demands on us on Account of the said Copartnership, to apply to the said Philip Margas, Sen. at Wandsworth in Surry, or to the said Charles Margas, at the Sign of the Golden Head on Ludgate Hill, for Payment and Satisfaction of such their Demands; and if the said Philip Margas, Sen. and Charles Margas do refuse or put off the Payment of such Demands, the Creditors are desired to give Notice thereof to me, at Mr. Torin's in Budge Row.

Samuel King, an Apprentice to George Temple, of Bury St. Edmund's, Suffolk, Taylor, did absent himself from his said Master's Service, on the 8th Day of January 1731-32, and had then near two Years and a half to serve of his Time; he is now about 22 Years of Age, a broad Face, a flat Nose; supposed to be employ'd as a Journeyman by some of the same Trade. If he will immediately Return to his said Master, he will be kindly receiv'd, if not, both he and those who Entertain or Employ him, will be prosecuted according to Law, by me

March 15, 1733-34. George Temple.

THE Creditors of Henry Roker, late of Witley, in the County of Surry, a Bankrupt, are desired to meet the Assignees on Saturday the 15th Instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Red Lyon in Gnilford, in the County of Surry, to consider of some Affairs concerning the Bankrupt's Estate, and in particular of a Contract made Mr. Inggot concerning Ley Farm and Lands.
