Berlin, April 19, N. S.

A Deputy is arrived here from Mecklenbourg, with Complaints against the Prussians that remain in that Country. His Prussian Majesty's Legs begin to swell again; and the Incision which was made in the Left and healed up, has opened of it self. Prince Lichtenstein being come to Town, we hear that his Prussian Majesty has given him the strongest Assurances, that the Prussian Auxiliaries shall, without fail, joyn the Imperial Army by the 4th of next Month.

Hague, May 2, N. S. On the 28th past the Prince of Orange set out for Guelderland. He dined with M. Catwyk at his Country Seat three Leagues from hence, whither the Princess Royal was invited, with several Ladies of Distinction, and the Entertainment was very magnificent. In the Evening the Prince proceeded on his Journey, and the Princess Royal came back hither. Yesterday the Marquess de Fenelon, Ambassadour from the most Christian King, returned hither from Paris. The States of Holland separated to Day, and are to assemble again to Morrow Seven-night. To Day the Princess Royal is gone to see Leyden.

St. James's, April 24.

Baron Hasberg, Envoy from the Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel, had this Day a private Audience of Leave of his Majesty; being conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards conducted to a private Audience of Leave of the Queen, by the Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, April 25. This Day Baron Hasberg had a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduc'd by the Master of the Ceremonies.

As he was afterwards to a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke
