Hanover, September 4, N. S.

THE King having laid aside all Thoughts of going to the Ghore this Summer, his Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Seven Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, and the Five Battallions of Foot, which he intended to have reviewed at that Place, should come into the Neighbourhood of this City; and Orders are accordingly dispatched to the several Officers to appear here with their Regiments on the 21st Instant, N. S. to be reviewed by his Majesty.

Hague, Sept. 6, N. S. Letters from Heidelberg of the 30th past advise, that Prince Eugene arrived there the 27th, and fixed his Head Quarters at that Place. On the 29th the Russian Troops being all arrived, were reviewed by his Highness, and performed their Exercise to his entire Satisfaction. The Imperial Troops, which lay at Bruchsal, were almost all come into the Camp marked out for them near Heidelberg; and the Duke of Arenberg, with Part of the Troops of the Circles, had taken Possession of the Camp of Bruchsal. In the mean Time the main Body of the French Army, commanded by the Marquês de Coigny, had encamped between Oppenheim and Worms; and the Count de Bellisle lay with the Body of Troops he commands between two and three Leagues of Oppenheim.

Whitehall, Aug. 29, 1735.

Whereas two anonymous Letters were lately sent to Mr. John Kerr, in Norris-street in the Hay-market, requiring him to lay Ten Pounds in a certain Place, and at the Time therein mentioned, and threatening, in case of Noncompliance, to burn his House, and to kill the first Person who should come out of his said House: And whereas on Tuesday last, the 26th Instant, in the Night-time, the House of Mr. Nicholas Read, Haberdasher, at the Corner of the same Street, in the Hay-Market, was attempted to be burnt, by putting Rags and Paper under the Door, and setting them on Fire by a Train of Gunpowder, which burnt Part of the Floor and Shop Door: Her Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Crimes, is pleased to promise her most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, in either of the said Crimes, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Kerr doth hereby promise a Reward of Ten Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover the Person or Persons who sent the said Letters: And the said Nicholas Read doth also hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall discover the Person or Persons who attempted to burn his House: The said respective Sums to be paid by them upon the Conviction of the said Offenders, or any of them.

John Kerr.
