Berlin, November 26, N. S.

HIS Prussian Majesty is expected in Town next Tuesday; the Ten Thousand Prussians lately arrived from the Rhine, have received fresh Orders to proceed, after three Days Halt, on their March towards their old Quarters in Prussia. They talk here that Count Seckendorff is to return to his Ministerial Functions at this Court, towards the Beginning of next Year. M. d'Aylva has left this Place on his Return Home, and, in all Appearance very well satisfied with the Dispositions in which he found the King and Ministers here towards the Prince of Orange his Master.

Hague, Dec. 2, N. S. The States of Holland at present assembled have ordered the Scheme of the Lottery for raising Three Millions of Florins to be published. The Envoy from the Emperour received Yesterday an Expres from Vienna, who brought him the Preliminary Articles of Peace between his Imperial Majesty and the French King. It is advised from Italy by Letters of the 16th of last Month, that the Cessation of Hostilities was that Day to be proclaimed at the Head of the Imperial and French Troops: But that the Spanish Generals had not yet received Orders to conform thereto:

Whitehall, Nov. 20, 1735.

Whereas an Anonymous Letter, dated the Fifteenth of this Instant November, was found in his Grace the Duke of Richmond's Park at Goodwood in Sussex, directed to his Grace, requiring Two Hundred and Fifty Guineas to be left in a certain Place therein mentioned, and threatening, in Case of Non-compliance, to pull down his Grace's House, and to destroy every thing belonging to it, and to shoot his Grace on the first Opportunity that offer'd: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to the making such Discovery, his Grace the Duke of Richmond doth hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Guineas to any Person or Persons who shall discover the Person or Persons who wrote, or knowingly sent or dropt the said Letter, to be paid upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders: The said Reward to be paid at his Grace's House in Privy-Garden, by me,

Robt. Sedgwick.
