Vienna, December 7, N. S.

M. Erizzo, Ambassadour from the Republick of Venice, received Orders a few Days ago from his Principals, to make Complaint at this Court, that some armed Vessels fitted out at Trieste had taken seven Venetian Ships in the Adriatick, on Pretence that they were loaded with Provisions for the Spanish Troops. The Emperour's Ministers have promised him to write to Count Kevenhuller, who commands in chief the Imperial Forces in Italy, to make a strict Enquiry into the Matter, and if it shall appear to be as the Ambassadour has represented, the Republick shall have all possible Satisfaction. It is currently reported here, that next Spring the Duke of Lorraine is to marry the Archdutchess eldest Daughter of their Imperial Majesties; and Prince Charles of Lorraine the Archdutchess their Majesties second Daughter.

Hague, Dec. 20, N. S. The Princess Royal and the Prince of Orange who have been here some Time, propose to set out for Leuwarden in Friseland, the 24th Instant. It is thought the Assembly of the States of the Province of Holland, will separate at the End of this Week.

Whitehall, Dec. 9, 1735.

Two anonymous Letters without any Date were lately dropt in the Yard of Isaac Mallinger, of Eltham, in the County of Kent, Carpenter, ordering him to lay Ten Guineas at the North End of his Hay Stack, threatening, in Case of Non-compliance, to burn his Hay Stack, and do him other Damage; but that if he complied, he should there find a Writing that they had stolen from him some Time ago. The said Mallinger is also commanded by the said Letters to tell Sir Thomas Steavens to lay the like Sum under a Hay Stack near his Garden in Eltham aforesaid, the 22d Day of this Instant December, threatening, in Case of Refusal, that it shall be worse for him, and threatening, if they should set a Watch they should die for it. His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the writing, dropping, or sending the said Letters, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, who wrote, dropt, or sent the said Letters, or either of them, so as they be convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Sir Thomas Steavens hereby promises a Reward of Forty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, who wrote, dropt, or sent the said Letters, or either of them, to be paid upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Tho. Steavens.

Whitehall, Dec. 2, 1735.

Whereas a Letter sign'd Honesty, Trusty, Fidelity, has been sent to William Lee, Esq; one of the Justices of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, requiring him to lend them fifty Pounds, and to lay it in a certain Place therein mentioned, and threatening, in Case of Non-compliance, to murder him: His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing or sending the said Letter, is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to any one of them that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement to the making such Discovery,

Discovery,

Discovery, His Majesty is likewise pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons that shall discover the said Offender or Offenders; to be paid upon the Conviction of them or either of them.
