Copenhagen, February 11, N. S.

COUNT Wartenleben, who has quitted the Prussian Service, is arrived here, and has been very graciously received by the King of Denmark. He was admitted to an Audience of his Danish Majesty alone, and has dined since at his Majesty's Table, as well as at that of the Prince Royal. He seems designed for some Employment of Trust, and it is not unlikely that he may succeed General Schulembourg in the Post of Envoy at the French Court. There is the greatest Probability that the King of Denmark will take a Progress this Summer into Holstein, both to review his Troops at their Return from the Rhine, and to reconduct the Princess Dowager of Oostfrie some Part of the Way on her Return to Aurich.

Hague, Feb. 17, N. S. The States of Holland are summoned to meet on Wednesday next, on Occasion, as 'tis said, of the Declarations sent by M. Bruyninx from Vienna, of the Emperour and the French King on the Part of his Catholick Majesty, relating to the Preliminaries of Peace; and also to take further into Consideration the Affair relating to the Succession of Juliers and Bergue. Thirteen Ships of our East India Fleet having lately sailed for the Indies, met with a Storm, seven of them are returned to the Texel, five continued their Course, and one was lost upon the Sand called the Haaks. The Imperial, French, and Saxon Ministers made publick Entertainments on Monday and Tuesday last, on Occasion of the Marriage between the Duke of Lorraine and the Archdutchess. Prince George of Hesse Cassel is daily expected here from Cassel.

Whitehall, February 9.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir John Comyns to be one of the Judges of his Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, in the Room of Sir Thomas Reeve.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint William Fortescue, Esq; late Attorney General to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to be one of the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, in the Room of Sir John Comyns.

Whitehall, Feb. 6, 1735-6.

Whereas Edward Pontifex, of Downley, in the Parish of Westwycombe, in the County of Bucks, Yeoman, was, on Friday the 23d of January last, in his Return from Chipping Wycombe Market, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, shot dead, and robbed of about Seven Pounds Fifteen Shillings in Money, and his Watch: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in this Murder and Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person that shot the said Edward Pontifex) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, his Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Admiralty Office, Feb. 10, 1735.

These are to give Notice, that a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 26th Instant, in order to chuse two Vice Presidents and six Assistants for the Year ensuing.

A General Meeting of Trustees for repairing and amending the Turnpike Roads in the Counties of Surry and Suffex, is appointed to be held on Wednesday the 25th of this Instant February, at the King's Arms Tavern in the Borough of Southwark, at Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon, to chuse Trustees in the Room of those deceased, and others refusing to act.
