Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 3. to Tuesday April 6. 1736.

Berlin, April 7, N. S.

KING Stanislaus is now expected here in a very few Days; travelling incognito under the Name of the Count de Ligny; He is to lie at the Marquês de la Chetardie's, the French Minister. The Day after his Arrival, the King of Prussia is to dine there, and the same Evening the Queen is to appear at Court, where, they say, King Stanislaus will be desired to come and sup with her Prussian Majesty; and that the next Morning he will proceed on his Journey.

Whitehall, April 6.

On Saturday last in the Evening Mr. Bowie, one of his Majesty's Messengers in Ordinary, arrived here with Dispatches from the Right Honourable the Lord Delawar, at the Court of Saxe Gotha, and brought with him the Treaty of Marriage between his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and her Highness the Princess Augusta, Sister of the most Illustrious Prince Frederick Duke of Saxe Gotha, &c. which was concluded and signed the 9th Instant N. S.

NAVY-OFFICE.

As the passing the Accounts of the Rt. Hon. Pattee Lord Viscount Torrington, late Treasurer of the Navy, are carrying on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to such Persons as have had Bills assigned upon him by the Navy-board, and have not received their Money for the said Bills, forthwith to call for the same. And all Persons who have any Imprests standing out against them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office, to clear the said Imprests, are desired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts, to discharge them, that so, the said Imprests may not be brought to Account, and returned into the Exchequer, as otherwise they will be. And such Persons as have passed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Imprests, are required to carry their perfect Bills to the late Treasurer's Officers, and so take up their Imprests.

Whereas the following Advertisement was inserted in the London Gazette of Monday, March 8, 1704, viz.

Whereas a Petition was presented to his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, Lord High Admiral of England and Ireland, &c. by Way of Complaint against Captain Aldred, Commander of her Majesty's Ship Solebay, in the Name of the Ship-Masters and Inhabitants of the Town or Borough of Lin, signed by several Persons, among which were the Names of John Clarke, Joseph Harvey, Edmund Quash, Sen. Philip Mason, William Quash, George Osborn, Henry Gurdleston, Joseph Taylor, Thomas Robottom, Henry Chenery, and Samuel Browne, upon which Complaint the said Captain was tried at a Court Marshal by Rear Admiral Whestone in the Downes the 18th past, and acquitted; but it appearing to the said Court Marshal, that the Hands of John Clarke, Joseph Harvey, Edmund Quash, Sen. Philip Mason, William Quash, George Osborn, Henry Gurdleston, Joseph Taylor, Thomas Robottom, Henry Chenery, and Samuel Brown, were Forged to the said Complaint: If any Person can discover who it was that Forged their Names to the same, so as that he may be prosecuted and convicted as the Law directs in that Case, he shall have the Reward of 20l. paid him by Mr. William Wrightsworth, Attorney at Law, in Abchurch-lane, London.

And whereas the said Captain Aldred obtained Leave from the then Council (amongst whom the Hon. George Clarke, Esq; was one, with others whom he don't recollect) to his said late Royal Highness, to publish the above Advertisement, but has not been able to discover the Authors of the said Forgery; the said Captain now offers a Reward of Forty Pound to the Person who shall discover the Author or Authors of the said Forgery, so as he or they may be prosecuted for the same; so be paid by him at his House in Little Brook-street, near Grosvenor Square.
