Copenhagen, August 11, N. S.
Yesterday there was a Council held at Friedensburgh, but as the King had declared his Intention of not appearing in Publick, none but the Ministry went to pay their Court. The excessive Heat of the Weather is by some given as the Reason of his Majesty's not coming out into the Circle, or dining as usual in Publick, but others think he has again felt some Return of his Distemper; the rather, because on the 9th Instant two Physicians of the Town were called in to join in a Consultation with those who constantly attend upon his Majesty. As the King of Denmark passed through the Island of Fuhnen, on his Return from Holstein, he gave Orders that the Marriage of M. Juell, one of his Majesty's Chamberlains, with the Countess Frise, should be celebrated in the Palace of Odensee; and was so gracious as to assist at the Ceremony with his whole Court.

Dresden, Aug. 11. The King and Queen arrived here from Warsaw on the 7th Instant, upon which Occasion Illuminations and publick Rejoycings have been made three Nights successively.

Berlin, Aug. 12. The King returned hither from his Progress to Prussia on the 8th Instant, and this Morning set out for Potsdam. It is said his Majesty designs to go in Person to view the Damage done by the late overflowing of the River Oder. General Ginkel, Minister from the States General of the United Provinces to this Court, having obtained their High Mightinesses Leave to take a Turn to Holland for some Months on his private Affairs, has had an Audience of Leave of his Prussian Majesty. Baron Brackel, the Russian Minister here, has this Day received by an Express from his Court, Advice, that Felt Marshal Count Munich has possessed himself of Bacciefaray, the Capital City of the Crimea, and of several other Places; and made no Doubt of compleating very soon the entire Conquest of the Crimea.

Whitehall, August 6, 1736.

Whereas John Jordan, of Walton, in the Parish of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks, Yeoman, was, on Sunday the 18th Day of July last, found barbarously Murdered; Her Majesty is pleased for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, her Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
