Whitehall, January 20.

This being the Anniversary of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Birth-Day, there was at Noon a numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at Court, to make their Compliments on the Occasion to their Majesties and to their Royal Highnesses; and at Night there was a Ball.

Whitehall, January 13, 1736-7.

Whereas on Monday the 27th of December last, the Stable adjoining to the Dwelling House of the late Mr. Lowe, at Bedminster, near Bristol, was, as there is great Reason to apprehend, wilfully and maliciously set on Fire and burnt down: Her Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, the Reverend Mr. Rumney Penrose, in Guinea Street at Bristol, does hereby promise to pay the Sum of Ten Pounds for each of the said Offenders, that shall be discovered and convicted as aforesaid.

Rumney Penrose.

The Managers and Directors of the Lottery appointed by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the New Palace-yard in the City of Westminster, to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry, do hereby give Notice, that Books are now opened at the Bank, and will be continued so to the 1st of February next, to receive from such Persons who have already become, or are inclined to be Adventurers or Contributors, the several Payments to be made for such Contributions.

This is to give Notice, that the next Meeting of the Commissioners for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the New Palace Yard in the City of Westminster, to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry, is appointed to be held upon Wednesday, the 2d of February next, at the Jerusalem Chamber in the Deanry, Westminster, at Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon.

Jos. Ayloff, Cl.
