Petersbourg, February 5.

SOME Days since, a Party of the Czarina's Horse Guards set out from hence in order to join the Army in the Ukraine; and a great Number of foreign Officers, engaged in the Service of her Czarish Majesty, are daily going thither to joyn the said Army, which, it is now given out, will consist of 150000 regular Troops, but no exact List of them is yet made publick. On Thursday last, being the Czarina's Name-day, there were a great Number of Persons of Distinction at Court, to pay their Compliments to her Majesty upon that Occasion, and all the Russian Nobility, as also the Foreign Ministers, were invited to dine at Court as usual. At Night there was a Ball, and fine Illuminations throughout the whole City. M. Suhm, Envoy Extraordinary from Saxony, arrived here on the 1st Instant, but has not yet had his Audience of her Czarish Majesty.

Vienna, Feb. 20, N. S. On the 18th Instant this Court received Letters from Baron Dahlman, the Emperour's Ambassadour to the Ottoman Porte, dated at the Vizier's Camp at Babaduch the 30th past N. S. which advise, that the Baron arrived there on the 21st; that he had his Audience of the Grand Vizier on the 28th, and was received with all imaginable Civility; the Vizier telling him he was glad to see the Emperour's Ambassadour at his Camp, as it made him hope he had not been mistaken in the Opinion he had always entertained, since the breaking out of the present War with Russia, of the Justice and Equity of the Court of Vienna; that he could assure him the Porte desired sincerely to come to an Accommodation with the Czarina, if it could be done upon honourable Conditions; that the Grand Signior had already named Plenipotentiaries, and that if the Czarina had any Objection to the sending her's upon the Turkish Territory, the Porte would consent to appoint some other Place upon the Frontiers in Poland. Tho' this Court seems to flatter itself with the Hopes of an Accommodation, from the Facilities shewn by the Turks in naming Plenipotentiaries, and in being the First to declare they will consent to the appointing any Place upon the Polish Territories for a Congress, yet they do all that is humanly possible to put the Emperour's Army in Hungary upon the best Foot they can; and indeed, General Seckendorff who has visited all the Quarters, as well as all the fortified Places, and who returned hither but the Day before Yesterday, has assured several Persons, that that Army will be in a very good Condition, soon enough to oppose all Attempts that might be made by the Turks. Several Letters which have been lately received here, are positive as to the Dispositions making by the Turks to march towards Aloph in the Month of March.
