Vienna, May 8, N.S.

THE General Officers begin now to set out daily one after another for Hungary, and Count Seckendorff himself is gone to Laxemburg this Day to inform the Emperour that he is ready to set out. The Duke of Lorrain's Departure is not however fixed yet.

Copenhagen, May 14, N. S. As the Sickness in Poland, occasioned by the Misery of that Country, and the extreme Dryness of the Season, increases daily, having reached to Dantzick and other Places upon that Coast, the Danish Court apprehending it may prove infectious, thinks fit to take some Precautions in order to prevent the Communication of it here. An Ordinance is therefore preparing to regulate a Method of Quarantain for all Ships which come from those Parts and stop in any Port of Denmark; which will be imparted to the Foreign Ministers as soon as it is ready.

Dresden, May 15, N. S. The Saxon Troops that are to serve in Hungary will begin to enter this Day into Bohemia, and will be all there by the 17th Instant. Baron Friefe Lieutenant General will command them till the Arrival of M. Sulkowsky, who will stay with the King till the Troops are arrived in Hungary.

Hague, May 21, N. S. The States of Holland continue their Assembly, on account of the Answer of the Emperour and of the French King on the Means proposed for the settling the Affair of the Succession of Juliers and Bergues, which was delivered to the States General on Saturday last by the Ministers of those two Potentates. The States of this Province have granted to the North Hollanders a Subsidy of 130000 Florins towards repairing their Dykes.

St. James's, May 13.

This Day Monsieur le Baron de Soblenthal, Privy Counsellor and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Denmark, had his first private Audience of his Majesty to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of her Majesty; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, May 6, 1737.

Whereas the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Oxford, has been, within three Months past, set four Times on Fire, in the Night Time, and three Times within three Weeks, by some wicked Person or Persons unknown, with an Intention, as there is Reason to apprehend, by several Circumstances, to burn the whole Town: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in a Crime of so heinous a Nature, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, I do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Town on Fire, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall receive a Reward of One Hundred Guineas on such Conviction.
