Hague, August 6, N. S.

THE States of the Province of Holland are this Day assembled, and have before them for their Consideration, the Treaty of Vienna and other Pieces communicated to them by the Imperial and French Courts. His Excellency Mr. Walpole has for some Days had several Conferences with the Deputies of the State on those Points. By the Death of M. Boncourt, the Command of a Regiment of Horse in the State's Service is become vacant. Here are Letters from General Count Munich of the 29th of June: He had passed the Bog with Part of his Army, and the rest with the Artillery was to pass on the 30th, he having till then met no Turkish Army. He was to proceed to Oczakow, which he found lyes more distant from the Bog than he reckoned, the Maps of those Parts being very erroneous. But some were of Opinion he might still be fallen upon suddenly in his Way thither by a formidable Body of Turks which is said to be drawn together. From Hungary 'tis advised, that the Imperial Troops were in Motion to besiege Nissa, and that several Bodies were on the March to enter Bosnia, Walachia, and Moldavia.

Hampton Court, August 1.

Yesterday being Sunday, their Majesties, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia and Caroline went to Chapel and heard a Sermon preached by the Revd. Dr. Blomer one of his Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary. Their Majesties and the rest of the Royal Family above-mentioned dined afterwards in Publick, as usual, before a great Number of Spectators: About 5 o'Clock the same Afternoon her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales began to find herself in some Pain, and the same continuing by Intervals, about 7, Coaches were ordered to be got ready, and soon after his Royal Highness the Prince, and her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, attended by several Ladies, set out from hence for St. James's, where they arrived about Nine at Night; and her Royal Highness's Pains encreasing, she was, a little after Eleven o'Clock, safely and happily delivered of a Princess. About half an Hour after Ten o'Clock his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales dispatched one of his Pages to Hampton Court, to acquaint their Majesties with the News of her Royal Highness's being in Labour; and the Queen immediately thereupon set out for St. James's, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, the Right Honourable the Lord Harvey, his Majesty's Vice Chamberlain, and the several Ladies of her Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting, and arriving there about Four o'Clock, her Majesty, after a Stay of about two Hours, returned again to Hampton Court. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales and the young Princess continue in as good Health as can be expected. This Day about Eleven in the Morning the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy throughout the Cities of London and Westminster.

Hampton Court, July 29, 1737.

Whereas some Time between the Hours of Twelve of the Clock of the 16th, and Twelve of the Clock of the 17th Instant July, some Person or Persons unknown, did, on the Commons belonging to the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, maliciously maim and wound wound several Horses belonging to some Inhabitants of the said Borough, by cutting them with a Knife, or some other sharp Instrument, down the near Shoulder: His Majesty, for the better discovering of the Person or Persons concerned in the Crime aforesaid, is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, We do hereby promise, That whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in cutting, maiming, and wounding, the said Castle, so as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall have a Reward of Ten Guineas on such Conviction.

John Debnam, Mayor.
