From Saturday August 13. to Tuesday August 16. 1737.

Hague, August 23, N. S.

ON the 17th Instant the States of Holland separated. On the 19th his Excellency Mr. Walpole delivered to the States General a Letter from the King his Master, notifying the happy Delivery of the Princess of Wales, and the Birth of a Princess; and the next Day their High Mightinesses sent Deputies to make their Compliments to his Excellency on that Occasion. Some East India Ships are arrived in the Texel, and the rest of the Fleet from thence are daily expected in our Ports. M. Vander Meer, Ambassador of the States in Spain, has Leave given him to make a Journey to Holland on his private Affairs, and is expected here next Week. Since the first Accounts that came of the taking of Oczakow and Nissa, we have received no farther Particulars of those Successes.

Hampton-Court, August 9, 1737.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Catherine the Wife of Robert Long, dwelling at Limehouse Corner in the County of Middlesex, and a Child of Four Years of Age, were most barbarously murdered on Thursday the 16th Day of June last past, in the House of the said Robert Long, by a Person or Persons unknown, who also robbed his House of Effects to a considerable Value: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so horrid a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murders) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so as they or any of them may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Robert Long does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Criminals.

The Mark (R) of Robert Long,

Admiralty Office, August 6, 1737.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for managing the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 13th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
