Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 7. to Tuesday January 10. 1737.

Petersbourg, December 10.

LAST Wednesday, the 7th Instant, being the Birth-day of Princess Anne, who then entered into the Twentieth Year of her Age, all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility waited on her Highness in the Morning to make their Compliments, after which they dined at Court, and at Night there was a Ball. The 9th being the same Princess's Name-day, they had again the Honour in the Morning to make her their Compliments, and were invited to sup at Court, where there was a Ball. Felt Marshal Count Lacy arrived here on the 3d Instant; and Felt Marshal Count Munich is daily expected.

Copenhagen, Jan. 4, N. S. Upon New-Year's Day, Lieutenant General Schulemberg, his Danish Majesty's Envoy to the Court of France, was declared General of the Horse, in the Room of General Morner, who had desired his Dismission; and at the same time M. Flelsen, one of the King of Denmark's Chamberlains, was appointed Grand Master of the Queen's Court. Two or three other Promotions were then made in the military Way, but of little Note.

Dresden, Jan. 8, N. S. By a Messenger who arrived here the 1st Instant from Rome, the King has received the News of the Bishop of Cracow's being made Cardinal, thro' his Intercession. It is reported, that General Baudits who has commanded the Saxon Troops as the Senior General since the Prince of Wiefenfels quitted, is to retire from hence, but to preserve his Pension; and Count Sulkowski it is said will be made Felt Marshal to the Emperor, and have the Command in Chief of the Saxon Troops. M. Kyferling the Russian Minister, arrived here last Night from Dantzick. Count Rutowski and the Chevalier de Saxe are arrived here from Caskaw, and the King received them in a Manner that sufficiently marked how much he was pleased with their Conduct. M. Ozakowski seems to stand fair for the Charge of Great Treasurer of Poland; as he still remains attached to the Family of Czar-toriski, he will by their Means get the Recommendation of the Court of Russia, which will be a great Help to him.

Whitehall, January 9, 1737-8.

Whereas on the Eleventh Day of October last, about Ten o'Clock at Night, a Barn full of Corn, consisting of Eighteen Bays of Building, and a Stable, both in the Possession of Thomas Hanson, of Bradfield, in the County of Berks, were wilfully set on Fire by Persons unknown, and burnt to the Ground: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in this heinous Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, William Thompson, Esq; the Landlord of the said Barn and Stable and Farm, to which the same do belong, doth hereby promise, that whoever shall make such Discovery, shall on such Conviction receive from him the Sum of Twenty Guineas.

William Thompson.

Whitehall, January 6. 1737.

by

(Price Two Pence.)

by his Skull was fractured across the Crown of his Head, from E r to Ear, to the Length of ten Inches, and upwards, of which he languished till Friday the 16th Day of the said Month of December, about Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and then he thereof died; and that the said Person or Persons him the said John Tutkewill did wilfully and maliciously kill and murder: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concern'd in the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Major Jonathan Driver, dwelling in Queen Square, Westminster, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Jona. Driver.

Whitchhall, January 3, 1737-8.

Whereas Mr. Richard Warre, of Piggotts in the County of Bucks, received a Letter on Friday the 30th of December last past, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, threatening to take away his Life, and burn his House, Barns, and Reek, if he did not lay the Sum of Fifty Pounds at the Root of an Oak Tree near his Dwelling-house that very Night. His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, I the said Richard Warre do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in Writing the said Letter so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall have a Reward of Fifty Pounds on such Conviction.

Ri. Warre.

Stamp Office, Lincoln's Inn, Jan. 10, 1737.

Whereas by two several Acts of Parliament of the 10th of Queen Anne, and the 11th of his late Majesty, there is made payable to his Majesty for every Sheet of Paper on which any Journal, Mercury, or other News Paper shall be printed, One Penny, and for every Half Sheet thereof, an Halfpenny Sterling, under the Penalty of 10 l. for any Person to print, sell, utter, or expose to Sale, any such News Paper, before the Paper whereon the same shall be printed, shall appear to be stamped. And whereas the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties have lately prosecuted and convicted several Offenders against the said Acts, and levied the said Penalty on several of them, and have commenced several Prosecutions against others. And whereas the said Commissioners have received Information, that the said fraudulent Practice is still carried on in several Parts of the Kingdom, of printing and uttering News Papers unstamped; That no one may pretend Ignorance herein, the said Commissioners have thought fit to give this Notice, and that they will for the future prosecute with the utmost Severity all such as shall print, or expose to Sale any News Papers, contrary to the Directions of the said Acts.
