Vienna, January 8. N. S.

COUNT Botta, a Milanese, and Lieutenant Felt Marshal in the Emperor's Service, will, it is assured, be sent very soon to Petersbourg, to concert a Plan of Operations against the Turks for the next Campaign. This Court has received Advice, that the Plague, with which twelve Villages were infected in Transylvania, begins to diminish.

Hague, Jan. 21, N. S. The States of Holland continue their Session. They have had presented to them a Petition from the Greffier Fagel, who desires, in Consideration of his long Services, their Consent to his resigning his Employment to his two Nephews M. Ten Hove, and M. Fagel; hoping he shall obtain the Consent of the other Provinces to it. No Resolution is yet passed upon this Petition. Count d'Uhefeldt, the Emperor's Minister, having made pressing Solicitations, has great Hopes of the Consent of the States to the Loan of Two Millions which his Imperial Majesty would borrow in this Country: But the Event is still uncertain.

— Whitehall, January 13, 1737-8.

Whereas a threatening Letter was sent on Sunday the 1st Instant, to the Wife of Thomas Kemble, of Tewkesbury, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Gloucester, ordering her to lay Money in a certain Place, or else her House should be burnt, and she and her Husband murdered: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, I Thomas Lord Viscount Gage, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

GAGE.

Whitehall, January 16, 1737.

Whereas Charles Kilpin, of Hardinstone, in the County of Northampton, has humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 17th Day of December last past, he, on his Return from Northampton to Hardinstone, the Place of his Abode, between the Hours of Seven and Eight at Night, was set upon, assaulted and robbed by several Persons who were unknown to him, some of whom, by the Advantage of the Night, came behind him the said Charles Kilpin, and with some Weapon the very first Blow struck him to the Ground, and by repeated Blows cut him in so dangerous a Condition, that, together with the great Effusion of Blood that issued from the Wounds, he was for many Days, in the Opinion of the Sargeons who attended, and dressed his Wounds, in the utmost Danger of his Life, having lost the entire Use and Faculty of all his Senses: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of so horrid a Fact, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, Bartholomew Clarke, Esq; Merchant, dwelling upon Garlick Hill, in London, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Barth. Clarke.

Whitehall, January 9, 1737-8.

Whereas on the Eleventh Day of October last, about Ten o'Clock at Night, a Barn full of Corn, consisting of Eighteen Bays of Building, and a Stable, both in the Possession of Thomas Hanson, of Bradfield, in the County of Berks, were wilfully set on Fire by Persons unknown, and burnt to the Ground: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in this heinous Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, William Thompson, Esq; the Landlord of the said Barn and Stable and Farm, to which the same do belong, doth hereby promise, that whoever shall make such Discovery, shall on such Conviction receive from him the Sum of Twenty Guineas.

William Thompson.

Stamp Office, Lincoln's Inn, Jan. 10, 1737.

Whereas by two several Acts of Parliament of the 10th of Queen Anne, and the 11th of his late Majesty, there is made payable to his Majesty for every Sheet of Paper on which any Journal, Mercury, or other News Paper shall be printed, One Penny, and for every Half Sheet thereof, an Halfpenny Sterling, under the Penalty of 10 l. for any Person to print, sell, utter, or expose to Sale, any such News Paper, before the Paper whereof the same shall be printed, shall appear to be stamped. And whereas the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties have lately prosecuted and convicted several Offenders against the said Acts, and levied the said Penalty on several of them, and have commenced several Prosecutions against others. And whereas the said Commissioners have received Information, that the said fraudulent Practice is still carried on in several Parts of the Kingdom, of printing and uttering News Papers unstamped; That no one may pretend Ignorance hereof, the said Commissioners have thought fit to give this Notice, and that they will for the future prosecute with the utmost Severity all such as shall print, or expose to Sale any News Papers, contrary to the Directions of the said Acts.
