Kensington, July 7.

H E following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Honourable Robert Byng and Arthur Stert, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon.

May it thease your Majesty,

WITH Hearts full of Joy we crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the most happy Occasion of the Birth of a Prince, Grandson of your Majesty, and Son of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

As we are truly fensible of the many Bleffings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious and gracious Government, so, from this happy Event, we cannot but conceive strong Hopes of the Continuance of them to us and our Posterity to many Generations.

That Providence may continually heap Bleffings on your Majesty; That the Royal Infant may prove Heir of all his Royal Ancestors Virtues; and, That there may never be wanting one of your Descendants to bless and protect these Kingdoms, are and shall be the constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Retersbourg, June 10. A Courier is just arrived from Felt Marshal Lacy, with Letters dated the 28th of May, from the River call'd Moloshnoy Vode, giving an Account, that a Party of his Don Cossacks and Calmucks had deseated about 1000 Crim Tartars, and taken two of their Colours, which the Courier has brought to the Czarina. The Prisoners that are taken have assured the Felt Marshal, that the Tartar Cham, who is near the Perecop, has not with him above 10000 Men, which he drew together with Difficulty, for the Inhabitants of the Crimea would willingly submit themselves to her Czarish Majesty, because in Case the Russian Troops destroy the Country again this Year, they must perish for want of Bread, having no Corn but what is brought to them from abroad.

Vienna, July 2, N. S. There are Letters of the 25th past from the Army, which was then at Lugos, where the Grand Duke, the Counts Konigsegg, Philippi, Wallis, Prince Hildburgshausen, Count Neuperg, and General Sehr, had held a Council of War, to consider of the properest Means for relieving Orsova, which some think will be attempted by forcing, if possible, the Passes of Sclatina and Meadia. The Army is said to have been in so good Health, that the Day above-mentioned there was not one Person known to be sick: It consists of 18 Regiments of Horse, with 20 Battallions, to which 8 more were expected to be joined; all which, if compleat, amount to about 27600 Men.

pleat, amount to about 37600 Men.

Drefden, July 6, N. S. Our last Advices from Hungary import, that the Grand Duke, the Counts Keniglegg, Wallis, Neuperg, Philippi, and Prince Lobkowitz, are all within Reach of one another, and can join their Forces whenever they think proper to attack the Turks, who still remain before Orsova. We don't hear that Count Munich is yet got beyond the Nieper. His Coslacks and Tartars indeed pillage the Country as far as the River Bog, but return to the Army with their Booty with the same Rapidity that they seize it. M. Drydin, Brother to the Dutchess of Courland, is just arrived from Petersbourg, whither he went chiefly to make a Visit to his Relations, but carried the Order of the White Eagle for the Duke of Courland's Son, and has brought in Return from the Czarina the Order of St. Alexander for Count de Bruhl's Brother, Master of the Horse, and Count Fleming, Grand Master of the Artillery.
