

Stockholm, Aug. 29, O. S. The King of Sweden has slept tolerably well every Night since the 25th; begins to take the Bark regularly; has missed his Fever, and was so well this Morning as to sit up in his Room.

Leghorn, Aug. 22. On the 23d his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Greyhound, Capt. Ambrose, Commander, from Lisbon and the Streights, came into this Port, and on the 27th sailed for Port Mahon and Gibraltar; on board which imbarck'd General Columbine.

Rome, Aug. 23. They write from Naples, that the Electoral Prince of Saxony continues at the Baths of Ischia, and finds such Benefit by those Waters, that his Royal Highness has left off the Use of his Crutches. The Marquess Luchefini, Envoy from the Duke of Modena at Naples, has taken his Leave of that Court, on his Departure for the Court of Spain. The King of Naples has made a Present to him of his Picture set in Jewels, valued at about 500 Pistoles. On the 23d the Count de St. Estevan and his Family, pursuant to Orders from the Court of Madrid, imbarck'd at Naples on his Return to Spain in the St. Charles, a 60 Gun Ship lately built at Naples. The King of Spain, 'tis said, has declared him a Duke and Grandee of Spain of the first Rank, and the King of Naples made him a Present of 2000 Pistoles for the Expences of his Journey: At the same Time the Queen gave to the Marchioness de Solera, his Daughter-in-Law, several Jewels of great Value. These Letters from Naples add, that the Duke di Castropignano is to succeed Prince Corsini as Vice-roy of Sicily. That Count Mahony is appointed to command in Chief the Garrisons on the Confines of Tuscany, the Marquis di St. Cristina the Castle of St. Elmo at Naples, and Don Paolo Marchese that Dell'Ovo. That an Encampment of 16,000 Men is order'd by the Court of Naples, in the Neighbourhood of that Capital, against the Beginning of September. And that the same Court has order'd the Purchasing of all the Wheat that can be bought in the Ecclesiastical State.

Florence, Sept. 1. A new Regulation with regard to the Troops of the deceased Great Duke, has of late been sent from Vienna, and tho' not as yet published, 'tis reported that a Regiment is to be formed of them, to be called the Tuscan, which and that of Lorraine, consisting both of about 4000 Men, the Great Duke designs to keep up, and M. de Brairewitz is to command in chief his Royal Highness's Forces. On the 28th arrived here Lord George Bentinck in Company with three other English Gentlemen. On the 29th the Duke d'Elbeuf passed through this City on his Journey to Avernia, Camaldoli, and other Places in this State.

Whitehall, September 1, 1738:

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some Time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the aforesaid Practice. And whereas some of the Persons concerned in filing of Guineas have been supplied with Engines for edging or milling the Guineas after they have been filed as aforesaid, by one or more Persons that have made the same for the Purposes aforesaid; His Majesty, for the apprehending any Person or Persons concerned in the making or mending any Engine or Instrument made for the edging or milling any of the Gold Coin of this Kingdom, doth promise the like Reward, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in making or mending any Instrument made for the Purposes aforesaid. And whereas John Carter, Francis Kelham, David Roberts, and Joseph Benson, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending each of them, upon their or either of their being convicted; and, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts.

HARRINGTON.
