

all Vessels that may have Occasion to put into that Port, he thinks proper to make the Situation of it public in the following Manner, viz. When you have run into the Bay of Holyhead so far to the Eastward as to bring the Skerries Lighthouse to bear N. N. E. from your Compass Course, then Holyhead Harbour bears from you S. S. W. Beware of the Out Platters which lie about half a Mile to the Northward of the Salt Island which covers the Mouth of the Harbour. When you are up with the North Point of the said Island, the Lanthorn is direct South from you (situate on Rising Ground, Distance about 100 Yards from High Water Mark) you must run to the Eastward until you bring the Lanthorn to bear S. W. by S. Westwardly, then you are to clear off the innermost Platters which lie against the Middle of the said Island, then you run in boldly for the Harbour on your Starboard Hand. N. B. The Lanthorn will be lights the 1st of January next.
