From Saturday February 3. to Tuesday February 7. 1738.

Petersbourg, January 6.

WE hear that Baron Keyserling, her Czarish Majesty's Minister at the Court of Dresden, who arrived here the 2d Instant from Warsaw, is endeavouring to dissuade this Ministry from sending Troops to Hungary by the Way of Poland, lest it should occasion new Troubles in that Country.

Warsaw, Jan. 29, N. S. We hear from Officers who have lately left the Russian Service, that the Tatars had begun their Incurfions, but as yet had had little Success. The Marquis Malaspina, Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Naples, is arrived at this Court, and has had his Audiences of all the Royal Family; at which he was received with great Marks of Distinction and Esteem.

Copenhagen, Jan. 16, N. S. Two new built Ships, called the Jutland and the Danbrog, of 70 Guns each, were launched here the 27th, in Presence of the Court.

Bank, 14 December, 1738.

Upon a Representation from His Majesty's Postmaster-General, That it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters, gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails; The Bank of England, to contribute what in them lies to put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significancy or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, That for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will from and after the First Day of January next (instead of Three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable as Seven Days after Sight to ——— or Order, whereby in Case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Indorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners.

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of indorsing them, a Blank Indorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as often as Occasion requires.
