Kensington, June 7.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Incorporated Society in Dublin for promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Incorporated Society in Dublin for promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland, do humbly present to your Majesty our most dutiful and grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's late gracious Benefaction, towards carrying on the Designs of the Charter granted by your Majesty to this Society.

Animated by your Majesty's truly Royal Bounty, we shall be able more effectually to discharge the Trust reposed in us, and to proceed with Vigour in educating the Children, especially of Popish Parents, in Protestant Principles, and training them to Labour of all Kinds, particularly the Linnen Manufacture.

This very seasonable Instance of your Majesty's Goodness, is a new Proof of your Regard for the Protestant Religion, and the true Interest of this Country. And the Increase of your Royal Family, by the Birth of another Prince, (upon which we humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty), gives us the most pleasing Prospect, that when the Glory of your Majesty's Reign shall be completed, which we pray God may long continue happy and prosperous, the Blessings we now enjoy will be conveyed to latest Posterity.

Kensington June 7.

This Day Don Marco Antonio de Azevedo Coutinho, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke.

And also a private Audience of Leave of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses; to both which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.
