

manded Madame in Marriage for Don Philip, which with great Solemnity was granted by the King. The Marquess having delivered to the Duke of Orleans the Procuration from Don Philip, confirmed by the King and Queen of Spain, appointing his Highness to represent him in the Celebration of the Marriage, was conducted on the 25th with the like Magnificence to Versailles, where in the Presence of the King and Queen, the Dauphin, and the Princesses of the Royal Family, the Princes and Princesses of the Blood, the Ceremony of the Elpoufals of Madame with the Duke of Orleans as Don Philip's Proxy, was performed in the King's Apartment by the Cardinal de Rohan. On the 26th the Marriage Ceremony was performed by that Cardinal in the Chapel of the Palace of Versailles, in the Presence of their Majesties with the Royal Family, the Princes and Princesses of the Blood, the chief Nobility of both Sexes, the foreign Ministers and the Officers of the Household, making a very numerous Court. That Evening their Majesties gave a great Entertainment, and a Firework was plaid off. On the 27th Madame received at Versailles the Compliments of the City of Paris, the chief Magistrates attending in a Body, and the Prevost des Marchands making a Speech. They paid the like Compliments on the 28th to the Marquess de Lamina at Paris, on the Marriage of Madame with the Infante Don Philip. On the 29th a fine Firework prepared at the Charge of the City of Paris was plaid off; and at Night there was a grand Entertainment in the Town House, and also a Ball. On the 31st Madame began her Journey towards the Frontiers of Spain, attended by the Dutcheſs de Tallard and other Persons chosen by His Majesty, with a Detachment of his Life Guards. The King conducted Madame from Versailles two Leagues on her Way.

Admiralty Office, August 1, 1739.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodg'd with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, their Share of the Bounty granted by Parliament; these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them thither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 11th of September next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
