

they could not pass the Morasses that are on the Side of the Danube facing that Island. The Safety of our Navigation on the Danube diminishes daily, for the Turks put out with their small Vessels from the Borza, and slipping by our large Ships and Vessels, take all the little ones they meet. The Breach which the Enemy are making in the Bastion of St. Elizabeth, begins to be considerable, so that it costs a great deal of Labour and Trouble to repair it tolerably from Time to Time. The Enemy have made another Breach in the Bastion of St. Francisco, and though they make no great Progress in it, they are continually firing upon it. We have Intelligence that the Turks are making all necessary Dispositions for passing the Save at Dragoloffski, having got together a good Number of Boats there; and 'tis the more suspected they design to attempt that Passage, because they have cut the Banks of the River on their Side to draw off Part of the Water.
