Petersbourg, September 1.

THE 20th of August the Czarina returned hither from Peterhoff, in perfect Health. The 30th being St. Alexander's Day, there was a great Appearance at Court, and her Majesty dined in publick with the Knights of the Order. In the Evening there was a Ball, to which were invited all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility.

Stockholm, Sept. 4. The King of Sweden returned hither Yesterday in the Afternoon, after an Absence of about 12 Days a Shooting. The Queen went in the Morning to meet him at Ulrichdahl, where their Majesties dined. The two Frigates, one of 40, the other of 30 Guns, which convoyed the Transport of the two raised Regiments sent to Finland, returned last Week to the Dahlers. Numbers of Millers are here at Work to grind Corn, and Bakers to make it into Ammunition Bread, for the Transport of 6000 Men to Finland, and the Service of the other Troops already there.

Copenhagen, Sept. 26, N. S. M. Pleffen, his Polish Majesty's Minister at this Court, having obtained Leave to attend his private Affairs, set out two Days ago for his Estate in Mecklenbourg, and is not expected here again before the Month of March. Mr. Burnaby, his Britannick Majesty's Secretary to the Court of Sweden, passed the Sound the 21st Instant, and is probably by this Time at Stockholm.

Berlin, Sept. 26, N. S. Yesterday Evening arrived here the Marquis de la Chetardie, the French Ambassador to the Czarina. This Morning his Excellency made the first Visit to all the Foreign Ministers here. The Marquis de Vallory, the French Minister appointed to reside at this Court, is still at Hambourg, and will not be here before the 28th or 29th Instant. They write from Wusterhausen, that the King of Prussia has the Gout in his Hand, and that his Majesty appears inclined to remove soon from thence to this Place.

Dresden, Sept. 30, N. S. On the 28th, between Four and Five in the Morning, the Queen of Poland was safely deliver'd of a Prince at Hubertsberg, who was the same Day sprinkled by the Nuncio then just arrived there. The Notification was made to the Foreign Ministers by an Officer of the Court, and to the Publick by a general Discharge of Artillery, which was repeated Yesterday, and seconded by that of the Fire Arms from the Infantry in Garrison here, after the Singing of the Te Deum in all the Churches. His Polish Majesty not having been able to attend his Queen in her Labour, by Reason of a Complaint in his Leg, the Ministers have sent their Compliments in Writing to Count Bruhl, and made them here to the Princes Xaverius and Charles. Count Flemming, one of the Chamberlains, and Aide de Camp to the King of Poland, is set out for Munich with the Notification, and to desire the Elector of Bavaria to be the first Sponsor for this Prince; and another Chamberlain, M. Detler Einsfidel, is gone to Vienna for the like Purpose, to the Archdutchess Maria Anna; and Lieutenant Colonel Marzam is dispatched to Petersbourg.

This Day the Sieur Denay, Resident from the Elector Palatine, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majesty; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke, and of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline, Mary, and Louisa; to which he was introduc'd by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Pay Office, Sept. 12, 1739.
