

Berlin, June 25. All the Foreign Ministers here have put themselves, Servants and Equipages into Mourning upon occasion of the late King's Death. The Day before Count Troughes set out on his Journey to Hanover, he was presented, by the King himself, to Lieutenant General Count Donhoff's Regiment, the Command of which his Majesty has conferr'd on him. The Lieutenant General has had his Dismission on Account of his infirm State of Health: But his Prussian Majesty allows him a Pension of 2500 Dollars a Year, and has promis'd that he will soon provide for his two Sons. Since the Funeral of the late King, which was perform'd at Potsdam on Wednesday last, several other Military Promotions have been made. His Prussian Majesty's Journey to Prussia, in order to receive the Homage of the States of that Country, is fix'd for the 7th of next Month; and the States of this Part of his Prussian Majesty's Dominions are to meet here on the 3d of August, for the same Purpose. Last Night a Fire happen'd in the Town of Spandaw, two German Miles from hence, which, it is said, has done a great deal of Damage.

Hanover, July 1, N. S. Sir Cyril Wych, Bart. his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Hanse Towns, who has his Majesty's Permission to come hither from his Station at Hambourg for a short Time, arrived here on Wednesday Evening last, and Yesterday paid his Duty to his Majesty at Herrenhausen, by whom he was graciously received.
