The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Saturday January 10. to Aucloay January 13. 1740.

Whitehall, November 12.

ETTERS from Vice-Admiral Vernon, dated the 20th of October, give land under the Convoy of his Majefty's Ships nourable to all your Dominions, and that the Defiance and Tilbury arrived at Jamaica. On the 3d of October the Vice-Admiral failed from Port Royal with Part of his Squa-dron, on a Cruize off the Coaft of Hilpaniola : On the 19th of October he was joined by Eight Sail of Transport Ships, under the Convoy of His Majefty's Ship the Wolf, with Land Forces from North Ameri.a; whence more Transports, with the reft of the Land Forces raifed there, were daily expected. On the 20th the Vice-Admiral was preparing to return with the Squadron to Jamaica. Capt. Long in the Tilbury-had taken a Spanish Brigantine.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty. The humble Address of the Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland.

Most Gracious Sovereigm, "

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gove:nor and Council of your Majesty's Province of Maryland, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of congratulating your Majefty on the glorious Suc-cefs of your Majefty's Arms againft your Enemies, which together with your Majefty's Care in the Protection of the extensive Trade of your Majesty's Subjects in all Parts of the World, cannot fail of filling with Joy the Hearts of all your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects; or of convincing the Spanish Nation, as well as any other that may be inclinable to join with them, how dangerous it is to provoke your Majesty, and how able your Majesty is to vindicate the Honour of your Imperial Crown, and the just Rights of your Subjects in their Navigation and Commerce.

That the like Success may always attend your Majesty's Forces, till your Enemies are an Account, That on the 5th of reduced to the Necessity of fuing for a Peace, September the Store Ships from Eng- glorious to your Majesty, and safe and hoyour Majefty's Descendants may ever sway the British Sceptre, are the fincere and hearty Withes and Prayers of,

May it pleafe your Majefty, Your Majesty's most Dutiful, Obedient and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Whitehall, December 20, 1740.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that feveral Perfons, with Arms, have lately come in the Several Perfons, with Arms, have lately come in the Night Time into the Paflures belonging to the Inhabitants of Paddington, in the County of Middlefex, and killed and carried away great Numbers of Sheep grazing there; and that particularly on Friday the 28th of No-wember laft, between the Hours of Nine and Eleven at Nicht arwith the design the Court Inhabitant, have Night, notwithstanding the faid Inhabitants have been at a great and conflant Expence in employing Men to watch their Sheep and other Cattle, four Perfons in the watch their Sheep and other Cattle, four Persons in the Habits of Soldiers, armed with Muskets and Bayonets, entred the Grounds of Martin Geayes, at Paddington aforefaid, feized his Serwani who was watching there, and beat and wounded him in an inhuman Manner, and took a Fowling Piece from him, and having tied and lot him for dead, caught two Sheep, which they skinned and carried away: His Majefly, for the better discovering and bringing to Jufice the Persons concerned in the Crimes aforefaid, is pleafed to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of them, that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be ap-Accomplice or Accomplices, so as be or they may be apprebended and convicted thereof, and also a Reward of Fisty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforefaid; payable upon the Conviction of fuch Offender or Offenders

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement for fuch Discovery as a further Emouragement for facto Directory as aforefaid, the Inhabitants of Paddington do promife the Sum of Ten Pounds to any Perfon or Perfons making the fame, fo as the faid Offenders, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted. To be paid by

- Wm. Godfrey, Church-Warden.