Petersbourg, March 10.

General Lowendahl set out from hence on the 8th Instant, to return to his Government of Revel; having had the Command given him of the Felt Marshal Count Munich's Regiment of Cuirassiers, which is in Quarters there. The Turkish Ambassadour who is on his Way hither, will make a Halt at Novogorod, till the Waters are open for the more easy Conveyance of his Retinue and Baggage in Boats through the Canal of Ladoga.

Berlin, April 4. The Prince of Anhalt-Dessau set out from hence four Days ago, to take upon him the Command of the Army of Observation which is to be drawn together between Brandenburg and Magdebourg. It is to consist of 36000 Men; some of the Troops have begun to march to the general Rendezvous, and it is reckoned that within three Weeks the Camp will be compleatly formed. Proper Orders have been issued for sending thither Forage and Provisions necessary for subsisting those Troops. A Battalion of the Regiment of Groben came hither on the 28th past, and on the 29th proceeded on their March for the Army of Observation. Prince Ferdinand of Prussia's Regiment followed them the next Day; and the two Battalions of the Regiment of Flans have since taken the same Route from hence. The Regiment of Horse of Bredau is on the March to Silesia, whither 200 Recruits for the Hussars in the King's Army are likewise ordered: They are to be armed and mounted at Francfort on the Oder. Letters from Ormachau advise, that his Prussian Majesty has caused Cardinal Simzendorff to be seized and put under Arrest, for holding Correspondence with and giving Intelligence to the Austrian Officers at Neiss, and other Places. We expect to learn by the next Advices, that two Bodies of Prussian Troops have laid Siege to the Towns of Neiss and Brieg.

Wine Licence Office, March 26, 1741.

His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Revenue arising by Wine Licences, give Notice, That constant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-street in the Strand, for Dispatch of the Business thereof, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, in the Forenoon, Holidays excepted.

Stamp-Office, Lincoln's Inn, April 2, 1741.

The Commissioners having received Information, that there have been lately published a great Number of Pamphlets, consisting of one Sheet of Paper, and commonly called Broadfides, without having the same Stamped; and also a great Number of other Pamphlets, consisting of Collections of Songs, without being brought to this Office to be entered or the Duties paid for the same; and that a Practice hath lately prevailed of Printing and publishing those and other Pamphlets without the true Name and Place of Abode of the Printer or Publisher inserted therein; Have thought fit to give this publick Notice; that they will prosecute with the utmost Severity any Person that shall print, utter, or expose to sale, any of the said Pamphlets, commonly called Broadfides, without having the same duly Stamped, or shall print, utter, or expose to sale any of the said other Pamphlets, unless they are entered at this Office, and the Duties paid for the same, or any Pamphlets whatsoever, unless the true Name and Place of Abode of the Person by whom the same are really printed and published are inserted therein, as the Law Directs.
